to be carried on and performed by it, are as follows:

(a) To support the establishment and growth of new Christian churches, particularly in inner city and rural areas, so as to engender a positive impact on the communities served by those churches through their leadership and activities.

(b) To create and maintain infrastructures and mechanisms to enhance the communication and coordination among Christian churches, including but not limited to sponsorship of annual conferences for sharing of ideas, publication of a national directory of key church leaders, sponsorship of state-wide elections of officers, and publication of newspapers and other literature consistent with the purposes herein.

(c) To promote the spiritual, emotional, and physical growth of youth through the establishment of Christian orphanages, youth camps and seminaries in lesser developed regions of the world, as part of the missionary outreach of Christian churches.

(d) To establish and maintain an infrastructure for the promotion of charitable giving by employees of businesses, including but not limited to The Rawlings Group, by providing matching funds for appropriate qualifying contributions.

(e) To collect from charitable persons, firms and corporations, either absolutely or in trust, by gift, conveyance, transfer, settlement, devise and bequest, or in any other manner or manners, lands, buildings, bonds, shares of corporate stock, monies, clothing, food and any and all other kinds of property by any name and nature and to manage and invest the same; to dispose of in any manner, and to distribute in the discretion of the Directors, any portion of income and/or corpus of said gifts, exclusively for:

1. Religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, but no part of such corpus or income shall inure to or be spent for the benefit of any private Director, director or individual, and no part of the activities shall constitute the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

2. The foregoing purposes shall, except when otherwise expressed, be in no way limited or restricted by reference to, or inference from, the terms of any other clause of these Articles of Incorporation and shall each be regarded as independent, and construed as powers as well as purposes of the corporation. The Directors shall have complete discretion and control as to what portion of said property and property rights shall be devoted to each of said authorized purposes.

(f) This corporation shall engage, otherwise than as an insubstantial part of its activities, only in activities which in themselves are in furtherance of its stated purposes and upon its dissolution, any assets remaining after the payment of its debts shall be distributed to a charitable organization exempt from Federal income tax as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as now provided or hereafter amended.

(g) To exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon nonprofit corporations, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to acquire by bequest, devise, gift, purchase, lease or otherwise any property of any sort or nature without limitation as to its amount or value, and to hold, invest, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expend, disburse, lease, mortgage, convey, option, donate or otherwise dispose of such property and the income, principal and proceeds of such property, for any of the purposes set forth herein.

(h) To do such other things as are incidental to the purposes of the Corporation
