To Whom It May Concern:

F I L

In reviewing our papers that have piled up since being out of the country, I find we should have filed our 2002 Uniform Business Report by May 1, 2002.

I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused. Unfortunately, I am not able to understand how to file on the internet as when I ask for the Uniform Business Report as per the instructions, I am not able to find it listed. Also a "search" of the web produces no such form.

Therefore, I am writing to you to explain that my husband has been in India, on business, on retreat in preparation for his ordination as a Catholic priest and for the ordination itself. I joined him for the Ordination ceremony. He is currently in Canada for the World Youth Day Celebration with Pope John Paul II. I pray that the recent flurry of activities in our lives and my husband's recent Ordination as a Catholic priest will explain our reason for the delay in filing the report. He generally handles these matters. I am trying to pick up where he could not.

We sincerely apologize for this delay and, once I learn how to complete the forms correctly, will strive not be tardy again. Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely yours,

Barbara R Longacre
