ARTICLE III - PURPOSE

The corporation is a not for profit corporation organized and existing for religious and charitable purposes including, but not limited to, the purpose of conducting a ministry for Biblical teaching and preaching, equipping people to minister, and ministering to the spiritual needs of people. Further, the general purposes for which this corporation is formed are to operate exclusively for such religious and charitable purposes as will qualify it as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or any corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations which qualify as tax-exempt under that Code.

EFFECTIVE DATE
10-01-00

ARTICLE IV - DIRECTORS/OFFICERS

The corporation is organized on a non-stock basis and shall have no members. The powers of this corporation shall be exercised, its property controlled, and its affairs under the direction of and conducted by a board of directors. The number of directors shall be three or more provided the number of directors may be changed by the board as long as there are never less than three. The initial board of directors shall be chosen by the incorporators. Directors shall serve for a term of one year until the next annual meeting of the corporation at which time directors shall be appointed by the outgoing directors.

Unless otherwise provided in by-laws, the corporation shall have as officers as president, a vice president, a secretary, and a treasurer which shall be chosen by the board of directors and the officers shall serve at the pleasure of the board of directors. A person may serve as one or more officers.

Annual meetings of the corporation may be held in or out of the State of Florida.

Notice of annual and other meetings may be by oral means.

ARTICLE V - DURATION

The corporation shall have perpetual duration.

ARTICLE VI - INITIAL REGISTERED OFFICE/AGENT

ARTICLE IX - LIMITATION OF POWERS

1. No Private Inurement: No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to, members, trustees, officers, directors or private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles.

2. No Political Activity: No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

3. No Unpermitted Activities: Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or any corresponding section of any future federal tax code or by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or any corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

4. Distribution of Assets Upon Dissolution: Upon the dissolution of this corporation, the last board of directors shall distribute the assets of the corporation for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or any corresponding section of any future federal tax code, to such organizations organized and operated exclusively for such purposes. Assets not so distributed shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of Fort Walton County, Florida, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations, as that Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE X - BYLAWS

The power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal bylaws shall be vested in the board of directors.

ARTICLE XI - AMENDMENT

Amendments to these Articles of Incorporation may be made by the board of directors by resolution adopted by two-thirds vote of a quorum of directors.

We, the undersigned, being the incorporators of this corporation, for the purpose of forming this not for profit charitable corporation under the Laws of Florida, have executed these Articles of Incorporation on this 27th day of September, 2000.
