SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
OVERTOWN YOUTH CENTER, INC.
(a corporation not for profit)

Pursuant to Section 617.1007 of the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of the OVERTOWN YOUTH CENTER, INC. (the "Corporation"), hereby amends and restates the previously Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation filed with the Department of the State of the State of Florida on February 14, 2001 containing document number N00000006972.

ARTICLE I
NAME

The name of the Corporation is:

OVERTOWN YOUTH CENTER, INC.

ARTICLE II
PURPOSES

The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are:

To receive and maintain personal or real property, or both: and, subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income therefrom and the principal thereof exclusively for educational and other charitable purposes: To develop, own and operate a facility to be known as "Overtown Youth Center" located at 450 Northwest 14th Street, Miami, Florida 33139 and to provide both educational and sports programs to youths within the community surrounding such location, all for no pecuniary gain; and to conduct such other activities as are from time to time found appropriate in connection with the foregoing.

These purposes may be effectuated either directly, or by contributions to, or activities undertaken in cooperation with, other organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended.<sup>1</sup>

The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are exclusively charitable and educational within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code: and, notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal Income Tax under Code Section 501(c)(3), contributions to which are deductible for federal income, gift and estate tax purposes. The Corporation is a not-for-profit corporation organized pursuant to the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act.

<sup>1</sup> Unless otherwise noted, all references are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, Title 26 of the United States Code, including corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws and the regulations promulgated thereunder as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

In furtherance of the foregoing, the Corporation shall be authorized:

(a) To receive assistance, money (as grants or otherwise), real or personal property and any other form of contributions, gift, bequest or devise from any person, firm or corporation, to be utilized in the furtherance of the objects and purposes of the Corporation; to enter into agreements or contracts for contributions to the Corporation for its objects and purposes, provided however, that gifts shall be subject to acceptance by the board of directors as required by the bylaws.

(b) To establish an office and employ such assistance and clerical force as may be necessary and proper in the judgment of the board of directors, and pay reasonable compensation for the services of such persons.

(c) To distribute, in the manner, form and method, and by the means determined by the board of directors of the Corporation, any and all forms of contributions received by it in carrying out the programs of the Corporation in the furtherance of its stated purposes. Money and real or personal property contributed to the Corporation in the furtherance of these objects and purposes are and shall continue to be impressed with a trust for such purposes.

(d) To invest and reinvest surplus funds in such securities and properties as the board of directors may from time to time determine.

(e) To purchase, acquire, own, hold, guarantee, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, loan or otherwise dispose of and deal in any bonds, securities, evidence of indebtedness or other personal property, as well as to purchase, acquire, own, hold, sell, transfer, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of and deal in real estate; and, as the owner of any such real or personal property, to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership.

(f) To contract and be contracted with, and to sue and be sued.

(g) To adopt and use a corporation seal containing the words "corporation not for profit", if desired and deemed necessary; but, this shall not be compulsory unless required by law.

(h) To do all acts and things requisite, necessary, proper and desirable to carry out and further the objects for which the Corporation is formed; and, in general, to have all the rights, privileges and immunities, and enjoy all the benefits of the laws of the State of Florida applicable to corporations of this character, including but not limited to the powers described in Section 617.0302 of the Florida Statutes.

(i) All of the above and foregoing are to be construed both as objects and powers, and it is expressly provided that the specific objects and powers enumerated herein shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the general powers of the Corporation.

H03000333083

(j) Each and all of the objects, purposes and powers of the Corporation, however, shall be exercised, construed and limited in their application to accomplish the purposes for which the Corporation is formed.

ARTICLE III
TERM OF EXISTENCE

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence, unless dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

The officers of the Corporation shall be President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, who shall at all times be members of the Board, and the Corporation may have such other officers as the Board may from time to time create by resolution. The officers shall serve as provided under these Articles of Incorporation and the bylaws of the Corporation. The term of the Officers and the manner of their election shall be prescribed and governed by the bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE V
DIRECTORS, COMMITTEES AND COUNCILS

The powers of the Corporation shall be exercised, its property controlled, and its affairs conducted exclusively by the Board. The number of directors herein provided shall be set forth in the By-Laws of the Corporation. The Corporation currently has nine (9) directors. The number of the directors may either be increased or decreased from time to time as provided in the By-Laws, but shall never be less than three (3). The current directors are: (1) Alonzo H. Mourning, (2) Albert E. Dotson, Jr., (3) Allen Furst, (4) Sara B. Herald, (5) Emmanuel Washington, (6) Marvin Dunn, (7) Jennifer Altman, (8) Irby McKnight and (9) Tony Hopson. The Board may, from time to time, establish such advisory committees and councils that the Board deems in the best interests of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VI
INITIAL REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT

The street address of the current registered office of the Corporation is 200 South Biscayne Boulevard, Suite 2500, Miami, Florida 33131, and the name of the current registered agent of the Corporation at that address is Albert E. Dotson, Jr.

ARTICLE VII
DIRECTORS' AND OFFICERS'
COMPENSATION AND INDEMNIFICATION

A. Compensation. A director of the Corporation shall not receive compensation, directly or indirectly, for services as a director. An officer of the Corporation shall not receive compensation, directly or indirectly, for services as an officer unless employed by the board of directors as: (i) a member of the administrative staff of the Corporation, or (ii) for compensable services rendered in other capacities. These prohibitions shall not preclude reimbursement of a director, officer, or duly appointed committee member for expenses or advances made for the Corporation that are reasonable in character and amount not for compensable services rendered in other capacities and approved for payment in the manner provided by the bylaws.

B. Indemnification. Every director and every officer of the Corporation shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all expenses and liabilities, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed in connection with any proceeding or any settlement of any proceeding to which a director or officer may be a party or may become involved by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the Corporation, whether or not a director or officer at the time such expenses are incurred, except when the director or officer is adjudged guilty of willful misfeasance or willful malfeasance in the performance of duties; provided that in the event of a settlement before entry of judgment, the indemnification shall apply only when the board of directors approves such settlement and reimbursement as being in the best interest of the Corporation. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which such director or officer may be entitled. Appropriate liability insurance shall be provided for every officer, director and agent of the Corporation in amounts determined from time to time by the board.

C. Interest of Directors and Officers in Contracts. Any contract, whether for compensation or otherwise, or other transactions between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any firm of which one or more of its directors or officers are stockholders or employees, or in which they are interested, or between the Corporation and any corporation or association of which one or more of its directors or officers are shareholders, members, directors, officers or employees, or in which they are interested, shall be valid for all purposes, notwithstanding the presence of such director or directors, officer or officers, at the meeting of the board of directors of the Corporation which acts upon or in reference to such contract or transaction and notwithstanding his or their participation in such action, if the fact of such interest shall be disclosed or known in writing to the board of directors and the board of directors shall, nevertheless, authorize, approve and ratify such contract or transaction by vote of majority of the directors present, such interested director or directors, officer or officers to be counted in determining whether a quorum is present but not be counted in calculating the majority of such quorum necessary to carry such vote. This section shall not be construed to invalidate any contract or other transaction which would otherwise be valid under the common and statutory law applicable thereto.

ARTICLE VIII
NONPROPRIETARY LIMITATIONS

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, the directors, or officers of the Corporation, or to any other private person; nor shall the Corporation's assets or earnings be expended for the benefit of anyone other than a recipient of funds for charitable, educational and literary purposes; it being intended that all such earnings and assets shall be used and expended solely for the purposes stated in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to the Corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes as set forth herein.

No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation; and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

In the event that the Corporation can be characterized in any fiscal year(s) as a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509, the Corporation, during the fiscal year(s) of such characterization:

Shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942;

Shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d);

Shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c);

Shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944; and

Shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d).

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

ARTICLE IX
DISPOSITION OF ASSETS

All the property of the Corporation is and shall be irrevocably dedicated to charitable or educational purposes. In the event of the dissolution of the Corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation by transferring such assets to such organizations which are exempt under Section 501(c)(3) and are engaged in activities of the type described in Article II above, as the board of directors shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE X
BYLAW
AMENDMENTS

The power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal the Bylaws of the Corporation shall be vested in the Board in accordance with the provisions of the Bylaws.

ARTICLE XI
ARTICLES
AMENDMENTS

The Corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation, or in any subsequent amendment hereto, and such amendment to these Articles of Incorporation may be proposed by any member of the Board, and presented as provided in the bylaws to a quorum (as defined therein) of the Board for their vote. Amendments must be adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors of the Corporation at a meeting in which a quorum exists.

ARTICLE XII
PRINCIPAL MAILING ADDRESS

The principal mailing address of the Corporation is 450 Northwest 14th Street, Miami, Florida 33139.
