To whom it may concern,

Please accept our apologies for our UBR being filed a few days late. I was under the impression that we had already filed, and that the packet received was a duplicate. (As stated on the front).

I went online to confirm, and could not find anything. So I attempted to file online. However, I did not know that an account had to be set up in advance, so I was not able to do so. Today I called your offices to explain the dilemma.

Please grant us grace, and hopefully you will not assess a late fee which is really not in our budget.

Thank you for your kind consideration.

Sincerely,

John L Kaiser
Vice President
