Article VII Corporate Restrictions

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall be to the benefit of or be distributed to its members, trustees, officers or other private persons. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statement) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal Income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the current revision) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Article VIII Amendments

The Articles of Incorporation may be amended in compliance with section 617.1006, F.S. and filed in accordance with section 617.01201, F.S. The proposed amendments shall be discussed at the regular meeting when a motion to amend is made. At the next regular meeting such proposed amendment shall be voted upon by the membership. Adoption of an amendment requires a favorable majority vote from members present and eligible to vote.

Article IX Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Officers shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all assets of the Corporation in such manner, or to such organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, (or current revision) as the Officers shall determine.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
