ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION – State of Florida

In Compliance with Chapter 617, F. S., (Not for Profit)

FILED

00 DEC -8 PM 12: 55

SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of the corporation shall be: Two by Two Ministries, Inc.

ARTICLE II PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal place of business and mailing address of this corporation shall be:

Two by Two Ministries, Inc.
620 Pitts Bayshore Drive (Apartment A)
Freeport, Florida 32439

ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

This not-for-profit corporation is organized to create evangelistic, discipleship, fellowship, and worship tools, methods, materials, and information for use on the World Wide Web. The corporation will work to provide means of access to these resources as widely as possible, to all the world if possible.

The corporation will work to create a virtual, world wide Christian Fellowship, Discipleship, and Worship Center using the World Wide Web and with other information technology and advanced communications technology enabled tools as they from time-to-time become available.

The corporation will acquire assets necessary in carrying out its purposes. The corporation will employ personnel necessary to carry out its purpose. The corporation will enter into agreements with other organizations as required to carry out its purpose.

The corporation will, as necessary, engage in research and development in the area of communication technology, information system technology, and software programming as required to fulfill its evangelistic and ministry purposes for Jesus Christ. The corporation may from time-to-time develop technology that has commercial value as the result of this research. The corporation will use any income generated, from licenses to third parties of such development, to supplement contributions for on-going support of its purpose.

The corporation will engage in evangelistic and ministry activity in non-technology related areas as required to carry out its broader Christian evangelistic and discipleship mission.

The corporation will, as necessary, engage in activities required to raise funds in the form of contributions to pay expenses incurred in fulfilling its purpose. Although the corporation will rely on charitable contributions to provide most of its operating expense, as necessary, the corporation may engage in other legal business activities to produce funding required to achieve its purposes.

The corporation will work to make available grants of funds and technology to other not-for-profit Christian organizations who would benefit from said contributions.

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Three hereof.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION

The manner in which the directors are elected or appointed: Initial directors will be appointed by the founder as needed. Subsequent directors will be appointed or elected to the board of directors on an bi-annual basis at the annual meeting of the corporation.
