ARTICLE II

DURATION

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE III

PURPOSE & INITIAL BUSINESS

The tax exempt purposes for which the Corporation is organized is to engage in any activities or business permitted under the laws of the United States and the State of Florida, as well as to transact any lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the Florida General Corporation Act. The Corporation may acquire and hold stock in any corporation; engage in joint ventures and partnerships, as a limited or general partner; acquire, own hold, manage, improve, lease, sell, exchange, transfer, and otherwise deal with real, personal, and intangible property wherever situate; to carry out said purposes in any State, territory, district, or possession of the United States, or in any foreign country, subject to the restrictions and limitations which are hereinafter set for the, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income from the principal of the fund or funds exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary or educational purposes, either directly or by contributions to organization that qualify as exempt organizations under ¶501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or any may hereafter be amended. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by organizations described in ¶501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as the now exist or as they may hereafter be amended. The general nature of the business proposed to be transacted initially by the corporation, at any place within the United States, is to provide education, in a non denominational organization, making disciples in all the nations: 1. teaching them to obey all of God's commands and to grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. 2. Equipping them for the work of service to the building up of the Body of Christ that we all may attain to the unity of the faith and generally to do all acts reasonable and necessary for the furtherance of such business.

ARTICLE IV

TAX-EXEMPT STATUS FOR CHARITABLE EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

This corporation shall not directly or indirectly perform any act or transact any business that will jeopardize the tax exempt status of the corporation under ¶510 (c) (6) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulation, as such section and regulations now exist or may hereafter be amended, or the net earnings of the corporation, current or accumulated, shall inure to the benefit of any private individual.

ARTICLE V

INITIAL OBJECTIVES

The specific charitable, scientific, literary, and educational objectives of this corporation are:

- a. to make disciples in all the nations. Build relationships while holding forth and modeling Christ's teaching (Love your neighbor as yourself, Mercy triumph over judgement, etc.) to any through out the world.
- b. Teaching them to obey all of God's commands and to grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Lay forth and encourage all of Christ's disciples to hold fast to his way o life; including all of the Biblical Hebraic standard of life: i.e. Levitical diet, Daniel Diet, keeping Biblical festivals, worshipping in a Spirit led Davidic manner, etc. This could be accomplished through various activities, such as nutritional classes, newsletters, hosting/partaking in Levitical festival dinners, Praise Dance Performances and holding Praise Dance classes.

- c. equipping them, for the work of service. Equipping could occur through seminars, conferences, workshops, training and raising up others to utilize Davidic Praise Dance for ministry and outreach in the community (presentation at senior centers, street ministry and arts and crafts festivals).
- d. To the building up of the body of Christ that we all may attain to the unity of the faith. The hope and desire to bring Unity throughout the body of believers in Christ; that all believers may have a better understanding of the importance of their Hebrew roots. Moreover, as this understanding grows that they embrace their Heritage more fully and have a deeper love for other brothers and sisters in differing denominations and associations.

ARTICLE VI
