Dear Dr's Podlaski and Bonham

It has come to my attention that I am no longer involved in any of the current events with the Chiropractic Alliance for Primary Care Inc.

In the recent days of past it has come to my attention that my input and input from other physicians in this field of Chiropractic is not being looked upon for proper dialog in this most delicate matter comensing on September 14, 2001.

I feel I have been deceived and betrayed in this organization and decisions are being made behind closed doors without any of my input.

Be that as it may I have no other recourse but to resign immediately as of this date of September 12, 2001.

I will be forwarding this letter to Mr. Bob Harris, legal counsel to this organization, to immediately withdrawal my name and exposure from any further legal quests of this organization.

I will be ordering Mr. Harris to stop immediately any further billing and action on behalf of this organization (CAPC) while MY name is on the contract. If you members want to continue the quest in the Injectable's issue please be my guest and sign the contract and take the responsibility.

Sincerely

Michael John Badanek D.C.
