RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF GRACE IN ACTION MISSION, INC.
A non-profit Florida corporation

(Pursuant to s. 617.0202, Florida Statutes.)

The undersigned have this day associated themselves for the purpose of forming a non-profit corporation under the laws of Florida and adopt the following Articles of Incorporation.

1. Name. The name of this corporation is GRACE IN ACTION MISSION, INC. The duration of the corporation shall be perpetual.
2. Tax-Exempt Status. The tax exempt purposes of this corporation shall be to receive and maintain a fund or funds of real or personal property or both and, subject to the restrictions and limitations which are hereinafter set forth, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income from the principal of the fund or funds exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary or educational purposes, either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under ss501(c)(3) of the Internal revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or any may hereafter be amended. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, this corporation shall not conduct or carry on any other activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax described in ss501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.
3. Tax-Exempt Status for Educational Association. This corporation shall not directly or indirectly perform any act or transact any business that will jeopardize the tax-exempt status of the corporation under ss501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations, as such section and regulations now exist or may hereafter be amended, or under corresponding laws and regulations hereafter adopted. No part of the assets or the net earnings of the corporation, current or accumulated shall inure to the benefit of any private individual.
4. Initial Objectives. The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and/or scientific purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The specific charitable, scientific, literary, and educational objectives of this corporation are:

- a. Charitable

5. Powers. In furtherance of its objectives and to provide funds therefore, this corporation shall have the capacity and power to do any and all things necessary and appropriate to their accomplishment, including but not limited to:

- a. To hold, manage and administer any and all real and personal property of every kind and description acquired by the corporation; to use and apply the whole or part of the income therefrom and the principal interest thereof exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary or educational purposes, either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under ss501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.
- b. To accept and receive by gift, devise, bequest or otherwise for the uses and purposes of this corporation, any property – real, personal or mixed – of any kind, nature or description.
- c. To acquire by purchase, lease or otherwise; to own, hold, maintain and improve; to sell, exchange, mortgage, license, or lease or otherwise dispose of, such real and personal property as may be necessary to further accomplish this corporation's purposes.
- d. To invest and reinvest its funds and assets, subject to the limitations and conditions contained in any gift, devise, bequest or grant; provided, however, that such limitations and conditions are not in conflict with the provisions of ss501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.
- e. To make and enter into contracts and agreements of every kind and description necessary to further the purposes of this corporation and to apply for, receive, contract, administer, and perform gifts, grants, awards, contracts, and programs to accomplish its purpose with any and all governmental, charitable, educational, or scientific organizations.
- f. To lend its funds upon adequate security and to borrow for its corporate purposes and secure the same by mortgage or pledge of any and all its corporate real or personal property or both.
- g. To exercise all rights and privileges appurtenant to any securities or any property held by this corporation, including, but without limitation to, the right to vote any share of stock, which may be held by this corporation.

- h. To act as trustee of funds for trusts created solely for charitable, religious, scientific, literary or educational purposes as shall be in furtherance of the purposes and objectives of this corporation.
- i. To do any and every act or thing, and to engage in any other activity or undertaking necessary or convenient to the fulfillment of the purposes of this corporation which a corporate body may lawfully do or perform; provided, however, that only such acts or things shall be done and such activities or undertakings engaged in as are in furtherance of the tax-exempt purposes of this corporation and as may be done or engaged in by an organization exempt under ss501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.
- j. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall be carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
- k. To hold meetings, lectures, and other educational, business, and social programs, to engage speakers, to compile and distribute information, and to provide printed material, forms, recordings, and other presentations or materials for the benefit of the members and/or the public.
- l. To collect dues, to engage in fund-raising activities, and to borrow money and to issue notes and other evidences of indebtedness and obligations from time to time for any lawful corporate purpose or objective, and to mortgage, pledge, and otherwise charge any or all its properties, rights, privileges, and assets to secure the payment thereof.
- m. To establish terms and conditions of membership in the corporation.
- n. To do any and every act or thing, and to engage in any other activity or undertaking necessary or convenient to the fulfillment of the purposes of this corporation which a corporate body may lawfully do or perform; provided, however, that only such acts of the tax-exempt purposes of this corporation and as may be done or engaged in by an organization exempt under ss501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

6. Non-Profit Status. This corporation shall be a non-profit corporation and shall have no capital stock, and no dividends or pecuniary profits shall be declared or paid to the directors, officers, or members thereof. No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any director, officer, or member of this corporation or any private individual, provided, however, that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to this corporation, and to make payments and distributions in the furtherance of its purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof.

7. Classes of Membership. The present members of this corporation are the incorporators and directors thereof. Any person may become a member of this corporation under the terms and conditions established in the by-laws of this corporation.

8. Registered Agent. This corporation appoints Kerry A. McKenzie, Sr., who has been a bona fide resident of the State of Florida for at least three years, as its Registered agent in and for the State of Florida. The Board of Directors shall have full power to adopt, alter and amend the by-laws of this corporation and to make proper rules and regulations for the transaction of its affairs.

11. Incorporators. The names and addresses of the undersigned incorporators are:

Martin H. Alman
17290 N.E. 19th Avenue
North Miami Beach, FL 33162

All powers, duties and responsibilities of the incorporators shall cease at the time of delivery of these Articles of Incorporation to the Florida Corporation Commission for filing.

12. Indemnification of Officers, Directors, Employees, and Agents. Subject to the provisions of this Article, the corporation shall indemnify any and all its existing and former directors, officers, employees and agents against all expenses incurred by them and each of them including but not limited to legal fees, judgments, penalties and amounts paid in settlement or compromise which may arise or be incurred, rendered, or levied in any legal action brought or threatened against any of them for or on account of any action or omission alleged to have been committed while acting within the scope of services or employment as director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, whether or not any action is or has been filed against them and whether or not any settlement or compromise is approved by a court. Indemnification shall be made by the corporation whether the legal action brought or threatened is by or in the right of the corporation or by any other person.

Whenever any existing or former director, officer, employee or agent shall report to the president of the corporation or the chairman of the Board of Directors that he or she has incurred or may incur expenses, including but not limited to legal fees, judgments, penalties, and amounts paid in settlement or compromise in a legal action brought or threatened against him or her for or on account of any action or omission alleged to have been committed by him or her while acting within the scope of his or her services or employment as a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, at its next regular or as a special meeting held within a reasonable time thereafter, determine in good faith whether, in regard to the matter involved in the action or contemplated action, such person acted, failed to act, or refused to act willfully or with gross negligence or with fraudulent or criminal intent.

If the Board of Directors determines in good faith that such person did not act, failed to act, or refused to act willfully or with gross negligence or with fraudulent or criminal intent in regard to the matter involved in the action or contemplated action, indemnification will be mandatory and shall automatically extended as specified herein: provided, however, that no such indemnification shall be available with respect to liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933 and provided further that the corporation shall have the right to refuse indemnification in any instance in which the person to whom indemnification would otherwise have been applicable shall have unreasonably refused to permit the corporation at its own expense and through counsel of its own choosing, to defend him or her in the action.

13. Dissolution of the Organization. Upon the dissolution of the organizations, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

14. Amendment of Articles of Incorporation. These Articles of Incorporation may be amended by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of this corporation at a meeting called for that purpose; provided, however, that in no event shall the purposes of this corporation be changed, and Articles 5 and 12 hereof shall not be altered or amended in any manner or way whatsoever.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the following incorporator has signed these amended Articles of Incorporation this date: JUNE 30, 2003

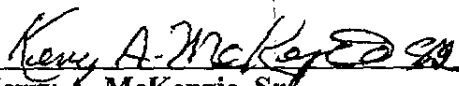

Martin H. Alman
