Article 3: Purposes

The purpose of the International Theater of Miami is to foster Latin American Literature among a cultural diverse community through the use of theatriic Arts.
In order to accomplish such purpose TIM intends to target the following,

A- High Schools

B- Universities

C- Cultural community events

The intended result it's to create an interest in the heritage of Latin American Arts by educating a generation that is growing up alienated from these aspects of cultural expression.

Article 4: Manner of Election of Directors

Presently TIM is composed by a board of five directors. The board itself selects each director needed to cover the different areas of production. A director is selected for a one-year term by vote and three members of the board are required to be present in order to have for quorum.
