ADD: To provide temporary shelter and assistance to families in crisis or homeless individuals. To promote successful life skills and independent living through education and community assistance.

This organization is exclusively a charitable agency as determined within IRS codes and is subject to any future IRS laws.
Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this agency shall not carry on any activities not permitted concerning (501c3) exemption from federal income tax under the Internal Revenue Codes of 1986.

(Art. # III cont'd)

This agency will receive public contributions as its main avenue of support. We will continuously seek public assistance as defined in the previously mentioned IRS codes.

This agency will not discriminate against any persons that qualify based on policy underlying principle.

: In the event of dissolution, the residual assets of the organization will be turned over to one or more organizations which themselves are exempt as organizations described in sections 501c3 and 170c2 of the internal revenue code of 1986 or corresponding sections of any prior or future internal revenue code, or to the Federal state, or local government for exclusive public purpose.
