SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The undersigned, as the incorporator of The Bart Eroncig Memorial Foundation, Incorporated, a Florida not for profit corporation (the "Corporation"), hereby adopts and files these Articles of Incorporation in accordance with Chapter 617, Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE I - NAME AND ADDRESS OF PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The name of this Corporation shall be The Bart Eroncig Memorial Foundation, Incorporated. Its principal office and mailing address is c/o Zack Kosnitzky, P.A., Bank of America Tower, 100 S.E. 2nd Street, Suite 2800, Miami, Florida 33131.

ARTICLE II - ENABLING LAW

This Corporation is organized pursuant to Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, as a corporation not for profit.

ARTICLE III - PURPOSES AND POWER

A. The purposes for which this Corporation is organized are exclusively charitable, educational and scientific within the meaning of § 501(c)(3)¹ of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) (the "Code"), and notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from

Federal Income Tax under Code § 501(c)(3), contributions to which are deductible for federal and state income, gift and estate tax purposes. More specifically, the Corporation shall:

Protect, preserve, and revitalize the marine ecosystem of Biscayne Bay and its surrounding areas, including by creating a sensitivity to environmental issues;

Facilitate the protection of South Florida's marine ecosystem;

Perform water quality testing and analysis; and, with this information, address water quality issues;

Seek to maintain wetlands, shorelines, wild life corridors and access to Biscayne Bay including by encouraging the grant of easements to appropriate recipients;

Collect biological data and identify important riparian and critical wildlife habitat areas in need of protection;

Create school programs to reach students throughout the County, and motivating students to study all facets of the riparian ecosystem through "hands on" biology, chemistry and geology field courses, teaching them about the aquatic web of life and the effect of human activity on riparian areas; and Forge partnerships with various Local, State and Federal agencies and organizations to establish a variety of programs and collect data for use in a computer model of the entire area.

The corporation may engage in any charitable activity permitted in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. These purposes may be effectuated either directly, or by contributions to, or activities undertaken in cooperation with, other charitable organizations, including organizations that have been determined to be exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

The purposes for which this Corporation is organized are exclusively charitable, educational and scientific within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code: and, notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal Income Tax under Code Section 501(c)(3), contributions to which are deductible for federal income, gift and estate tax purposes.

B. In furtherance of the Corporation's foregoing charitable purposes, the Corporation shall be further authorized:

i) To receive and maintain personal and real property, or both: and, subject to the restrictions and limitations herein set forth, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income therefrom, and the principal thereof, exclusively for the foregoing charitable purposes.

ii) To receive assistance, money (as grants or otherwise), real or personal property and any other form of contributions, gift, bequest or devise from any person, firm or corporation, to be utilized in the furtherance of the objects and purposes of this Corporation; to enter into agreements or contracts for contributions to the Corporation for its objects and purposes, provided however, that gifts shall be subject to acceptance by the board of directors as required by the bylaws.

iii) To establish an office and employ such assistance and clerical force as may be necessary and proper in the judgment of the board of directors, and pay reasonable compensation for the services of such persons.

iv) To distribute, in the manner, form and method, and by the means determined by the board of directors of this Corporation, any and all forms of contributions received by it in carrying out the programs of the Corporation in the furtherance of its stated purposes. Money and real or personal property contributed to the Corporation in the furtherance of these objects and purposes are and shall continue to be impressed with a trust for such purposes.

v) To invest and reinvest surplus funds in such securities and properties as the board of directors may from time to time determine.

vi) To purchase, acquire, own, hold, guarantee, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, loan or otherwise dispose of and deal in any bonds, securities, evidence of indebtedness or other personal property, as well as to purchase, acquire, own, hold, sell, transfer, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of and deal in real estate; and, as the owner of any such real or personal property, to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership.

vii) To contract and be contracted with, and to sue and be sued.

viii) To adopt and use a corporation seal containing the words "corporation not for profit", if desired and deemed necessary: but, this shall not be compulsory unless required by law.

ix) To do all acts and things requisite, necessary, proper and desirable to carry out and further the objects for which this Corporation is formed; and, in general, to have all the rights, privileges and immunities, and enjoy all the benefits of the laws of the State of Florida applicable to corporations of this character, including but not limited to the powers described in Section 617.0302 of the Florida Statutes.

x) All of the above and foregoing are to be construed both as objects and powers, and it is expressly provided that the specific objects and powers enumerated herein shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the general powers of the Corporation.

xi) Each and all of the objects, purposes and powers of the Corporation, however, shall be exercised, construed and limited in their application to accomplish the charitable purposes for which this Corporation is formed.

xii) Do all such acts as are necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes set forth in these Articles of Incorporation and as are permitted by law and the Code or its corresponding Treasury Regulations for an entity which qualifies for exemption under § 501(c)(3) of the Code.

C. This Corporation does not contemplate any pecuniary gain or profit to directors or officers thereof and no part of any earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any director or officer of the Corporation or any other private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation, and the Corporation may reimburse its directors and officers for all expenses reasonably incurred in performing services rendered to the Corporation). No director or officer of the Corporation, or any other private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets upon dissolution of the Corporation. However, the Corporation may confer benefits in the form of distributions, upon dissolution or otherwise, upon any organizations described in Code §§ 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(2) of the Code as specified herein.

D. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall include or consist of the carrying on of propaganda or of otherwise attempting to influence legislation other than as permitted in Section 501(h) of the Code. This Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in or do any other act in connection with, any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office (including without limitation the publication or distribution of statements for or against any candidate).

E. All the property of this Corporation is and shall be irrevocably dedicated to charitable, educational, or scientific purposes. In the event of a dissolution of this Corporation, the assets shall, after paying or making provisions for all liabilities of the Corporation, be distributed to one or more organizations which are organized and exist exclusively for charitable, educational, or scientific purposes which, at the time of such dissolution, qualify as an organization described in Code §§ 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(2), or any corresponding section of any prior or future Internal Revenue Code, or any governmental agency for exclusively public purposes. Any assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction exclusively for such charitable purposes, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for such charitable purposes, as said court shall determine.

ARTICLE IV - TERM

The period of duration of this Corporation is perpetual, unless dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE V - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

This corporation shall have three (3) Directors initially. The number of Directors may be increased or diminished from time to time in accordance with the By-laws, but shall never be less than three (3). The powers of the Corporation shall be exercised, its property controlled, and its affairs conducted by, the Board of Directors. The names and addresses of the initial Board of Directors of this corporation are:
