(h) To do such other things as is incidental to the powers of the Corporation or necessary or desirable in order to accomplish the purposes of the Corporation.

(i) To exercise all the rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon Not for Profit Corporations.

ARTICLE 8

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall enure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article six thereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities unless permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE 9

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all the assets of the Corporation for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state government, for a public purpose, in such manner and to such qualified organizations(s) as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Special provisions authorized or permitted by statute to be contained in the Articles of Incorporation are shown as follows:

ARTICLE 10

This corporation is organized pursuant to the provisions of the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act. All trustees of this corporation now in good and regular standing, and such other members as the Board of Trustees shall from time to time admit to membership, shall be members of this corporation

ARTICLE 11

The business and property of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of three or more Trustees (Directors). The present trustees now duly constituted and elected shall constitute the Board of Trustees and they shall hold their offices permanently and so far as may be until other or further election. In the event of the inability of any trustee to act, or in the event of the death of any trustee, the remaining trustees shall elect another trustee, or trustees, to fill the vacancy or vacancies, thus created. Each trustee shall be a member in good standing of the corporation. A new trustee shall be elected by a majority vote of the total trustees, excluding the trustee whose position is being filled by vote.

(a) The trustees in their collective capacity shall be known as the Board of Trustees and under that name shall constitute the governing body, and shall conduct and transact all business of the corporation.

(b) The trustees shall have power and authority to hold an annual meeting of the Board of Trustees and may likewise hold special meetings as may be determined by the Board of Trustees. The annual meeting, if and when held, shall be held at the offices of the corporation in TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA on the first Monday of February in each year at the hour of 7:30 P.M. of such day, or as soon thereafter in each year as is possible for the trustees to call such meeting: and any special meeting may be held at such time as the trustees may determine, and all meetings shall be held at the offices of the corporation in TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA.

(c) The qualifications for members are: There shall be but one class of membership in this corporation. Membership in this corporation may be obtained by natural persons of all races, creeds and colors, who shall publicly profess belief in Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior, and who shall further profess their belief in the purposes of this organization as set further herein above, and who shall thereafter be accepted into membership in such manner as provided by the Board of Trustees of this corporation. The subscribers to these Articles of Incorporation and the initial Directors of this corporation shall be and constitute the initial members of this corporation. Any amendments to the Articles of incorporation may be made only by the Board of Trustees. Likewise, the Bylaws may be made, altered or rescinded only by the Board of Trustees of this corporation, having received the vote of a majority of the Board of Trustees in office.

(d) The Board of Trustees shall have authority and power, which is hereby given, to provide suitable and proper means and religious ceremony and required test and qualifications for entrance into the outreach ministries, hereby being established and organized and by and through the means as established and administered that any and all applicants may be inducted into the ministry thereby license, commission or full ordination with all ministerial authority possible for any ecclesiastical body to be given or to possess or to administer, giving therein authority to administer all sacred services of ecclesiastical bodies and to include sacred and sacramental services, and to further include the marriage services and together with the sacred services of baptism.

(e) The Board of Trustees shall have the authority and power, which is hereby given, to establish, institute, operate and maintain any all such additional departments, associations, institutions, schools, mission stations, programs, and any and all such other vehicles as may be deemed appropriate and advisable by said Board of Trustees for the propagation of the Gospel and Christian and religious worship within the United States of America and in any other country.

(f) The Board of Trustees of GOD'S WILL MINISTRIES, INC. shall have power and authority which is hereby given, to negotiate or designate agents to negotiate all of the business transactions, all receipts and all disbursements, for any such additional departments, associations, institutions, schools, mission stations, programs, and any and all such other vehicles established or instituted by this corporation.

(g) A majority of the trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction by the Board of Trustees of any and all business, in accordance with the laws of the State of FLORIDA.

ARTICLE 12

The manner in which the directors or trustees of the corporation shall be elected or appointed shall be governed by the provisions of the Bylaws of the corporation. The corporation shall be a sovereign body, and the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation shall be governed by the provisions of the Bylaws of the corporation.
