Section 7. Indemnification. To the extent not inconsistent with Florida law as in effect from time to time:

that may be incurred by him in connection with or resulting from any claim, action, suit or proceeding (i) if such director, officer or employee is wholly successful with respect thereto or (ii) if not wholly successful, then if such director, officer or employee is determined, as provided in paragraph (e), to have acted in good faith in what he reasonably believed to be the best interests of the Corporation and, in addition, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding is determined to have had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any claim, action, suit or proceeding, by judgment, settlement (whether with or without court approval) or conviction or upon a plea of guilty or of nolo contendere, or its; equivalent, shall not create a presumption that a director, officer or employee did not meet the standards of conduct set forth in this section.

(b) The terms "claim, action, suit or proceeding" shall include every claim, action, suit or proceeding and all appeals thereof (whether brought by or in the right of this Corporation or any other corporation or otherwise), civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, or threat thereof, in which a director or officer or employee of the Corporation (or his heirs and personal representatives) may become involved, as a party or otherwise:

(1) by reason of his being or having been a director, officer or employee of this Corporation or of any other Corporation which he has served as such at the request of this Corporation, or

(2) by reason of his acting or having acted in any capacity in a partnership, association, trust or other organization or entity where he served as such at the request of this Corporation, or

(3) by reason of any action taken or not taken by him in any such capacity, whether or not he continues in such capacity at the time such liability or expense shall have been incurred.

(c) The terms "liability" and "expense" shall include, but shall not be limited to, counsel fees and disbursements and amounts of judgments, fines or penalties against, and amounts paid in settlement by or on behalf of, a director, officer or employee.

(d) The term "wholly successful" shall mean (i) termination of any action, suit or proceeding against the person in question without any finding of liability or guilt against him, (ii) approval by a court, with knowledge of the indemnity herein provided of a settlement of any action, suit or proceeding, or (iii) the expiration of a reasonable period of time after the making of any claim or threat of an action, suit or proceeding without the institution of the same; without any payment or promise made to induce a settlement.

(e) Every person claiming indemnification hereunder (other when one who has been wholly successful with respect to any claim, action, suit or proceeding) shall be entitled to indemnification (i) if special independent legal counsel, which may be regular counsel of the Corporation or other disinterested person or persons, in either case selected by the Board of Directors, whether or not a disinterested person or persons being hereinafter called the "referee"), shall deliver to the Corporation a written finding that such director, officer or employee has met the standards of conduct set forth in the preceding subparagraph (a) and (ii) if the Board of Directors, acting upon such written finding, so determines. The person claiming indemnification shall, if requested, appear before the referee, answer questions which the referee deems relevant and shall be given ample opportunity to present to the referee evidence upon which he relies for indemnification. The Corporation shall, at the request of the referee, make available facts, opinions or other evidences any way relevant to the referee's finding which are within the possession or control of the Corporation.

Section 8. Disposition of assets. In the event that (a) the charter granted to the Chapter by the Fraternity shall be withdrawn, surrendered or suspended, and such condition shall continue for a period of two years, or (b) the Board of Directors, or the members shall determine to terminate the existence of the Corporation, then and in either such event, and after making provision for the payment of the liabilities of the Corporation, the Board of Directors or the members shall, in accordance with the provisions of the International Constitution and International By-Laws and traditions of the Fraternity, provide for payment or transfer of all remaining money and property to TKE House Fund, Inc., or its successor, which in either case shall be an organization described in Section 501(c) (7).

Section 9. Amendments. The Corporation shall have the power to amend or repeal any provision contained in its Articles of Incorporation and By Laws to the extent and in the manner prescribed by the Act; provided, however, that the power and authority of the Board of Directors and members to take any action to amend or repeal the Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws shall be subject to their obligations as members of the Board of Advisors of the Chapter and to the general control and supervision by the Fraternity in accordance with the laws, regulations and traditions of the Grand Council and the Grand Chapter of the Fraternity.
