In addition, the Association shall have the following specific powers and duties:

(a) Power to Manage Condominium Property, Contract, and Sue. The Association may contract and sue with respect to the exercise or non-exercise of its powers, duties and functions. For this purpose, the powers of the Association include, but are not limited to, the maintenance, management, and operation of the Condominium Property. After control of the Association is obtained by the Members other than the Declarant, the Association may institute, maintain, settle or appeal actions or hearings in its name on behalf of all Members concerning matters of common interest to most or all Members, including, but not limited to, the common elements; the roof and structural components of all buildings or other improvements; mechanical, electrical, and plumbing elements serving an improvement or a building; representations of the Declarant pertaining to any existing or proposed commonly used facilities; and protesting ad valorem taxes on commonly used facilities and on Units; and may defend actions in eminent domain or bring inverse condemnation actions.

The Association may use the proceeds of the Assessments in the exercise of its powers and duties, and enforce levy of the Assessments as to each Unit through lien and foreclosure or by such other action as may be allowed by the Declaration or applicable law.

The Association may not charge a use fee against a Member for the use of the common elements or the Association Property unless otherwise provided in the Declaration or by a majority vote of the Association or unless the charges relate to the expenses incurred by a Member having exclusive use of the common elements or Association Property.

(c) Right of Access to Units. The Association has the irrevocable right of access to each Unit during reasonable hours, when necessary in its discretion for the maintenance, repair, or replacement of any common elements or limited common elements or of any portion of a Unit to be maintained by the Association pursuant to the Declaration or as necessary to prevent damage to the common elements, the limited common elements, or a Unit. (g) Purchase of Units. The Association has the power, except as prohibited by the Declaration, these Articles, or the Bylaws, to purchase Units and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage, and convey them. There shall be no limitation on the Association's right to purchase a Unit at a foreclosure sale resulting from the Association's foreclosure of its lien for unpaid Assessments as to the Unit, or to take title by deed in lieu of foreclosure.

(h) Easements.
