ARTICLE III

PURPOSE

The specific purpose for which the corporation is organized is to provide educational enrichment to the people of third world countries. The corporation will do so by establishing libraries with audio-visual materials, open to the public, with written and audio-visual materials, technological resources, and language-building programs. The corporation will establish programs in mentoring and scholarship as well as parent-teacher collaborations in an effort to strengthen the idea that without quality education, one is ill-equipped to actively participate in the betterment of one's life. The corporation's ultimate goal is to assist in providing people of third world countries with the tools necessary to elevate their status in the worldwide community by advancing their education and providing them the means to better their existence.
