To: Gregory S. Ritter and Erik Pyle, Founding Board Members
Central Florida Commandos Football Club Inc.

Effective immediately, I Jason D. Whitaker, do hereby resign as an acting Board Member of the Central Florida Commandos Football Club Inc. Board Member Gregory S. Ritter, fraudulently used my credit card to run up a bill of $7000.00. Five attempts to collect restitution have failed. I am now being forced to pursue any and all legal means to recover the funds. I cannot continue to pretend that everything is "all-right" and continue to be a part of this organization. If I cannot remain as a player on the team, I am hereby asking for a "player release" from the Central Florida Commandos Football Club Inc., and if such release is not granted, I will petition Dave Rice, SSFL Commissioner, to receive such release.

In accordance with the bylaws of a "not for profit organization", I will turn in all paperwork regarding the "Commandos" as long as the following criteria are met: (1) Have the "Commando phone" reassigned in someone else's name or reimburse me the $240.00 to end the Verizon Contract. (2) Remove my name off any and all official documents including but not limited to, the Articles of Incorporation, etc. (3) Pay off all debts owed by the Commandos with my address attached to the bill. This should end with the $96.00 payment to Pro-Line Reconditioning from last season. (4) Notify all vendors that I am not associated with the Corporation immediately.

Respectfully,

Jason D. Whitaker

Cc: Dave Rice, SSFL Commissioner
