ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

Teach, advise, train, consult, guide, inform, and assist persons and groups and organizations in the use and development and education of a Christian educational system, including the use of any media, any business and/or computer related and/or any technological applications and/or any innovations necessary to implement and sustain same in a Christian school system, distance learning, Christian educational consulting entities, and/or to umbrella a group or groups of Christian educational entities. To purchase, sell, lease, mortgage and otherwise dispose of and deal in personal and real property to implement and sustain the above Christian educational program and programs, without profit, and to educate and sustain a Christian educational system for purposes described herein. As a charitable organization, mission education and mission work is a vital and integral part of this organization, including the distribution, storage, and/or shipment of food and clothes, and/or the training, education, and/or development of individuals and/or groups for life learning skills, preparations, and applications, and all other things to implement and sustain mission programs, work, and/or activities.

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
