ARTICLE VI. PURPOSE

The purpose of this corporation shall be to operate exclusively for charitable, scientific and educational purposes, and in furtherance of such goals is authorized to do any or all activities which it is empowered to do under chapters 617 and 607, as appropriate; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed as allowing any activities which would jeopardize the corporation's tax-exempt status or otherwise be inconsistent with its classification as an organization described in section 501 © (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1996 as amended from time to time, or any equivalent section of the Internal Revenue Code in effect at any time. Briefly outlined, the corporation shall carry out among other activities the following operations:

1. Provide 24-hour "hotline" telephone counseling service for alcohol and drug users.
2. Provide referral service for drug testing
3. Provide anti-drug seminars for drug and alcohol users
4. Provide a system to monitor youths through the age of 25

Specifically to combat drug and alcohol usage among youth and young adults.

ARTICLE VII. PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

Not with standing the provisions of Article III herein above, nothing herein shall be construed to permit the Corporation to engage in any activity which would be inconsistent with its classification as an organization described in section 501 © (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1996 as amended from time to time, or any equivalent section of the Internal Revenue Code in effect at any time. As such, the corporation shall not allow any expenditure of any part of the net earnings of the corporation to inure to the benefit of any member, director, or officer of the corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation effecting one or more of its purposes), nor shall any member, director, or officer of the corporation, or any private individual, be entitled to share in a distribution of the corporation's assets on dissolution of the corporation nor shall a substantial part of the activities of the corporation be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene (including the publication and distribution of statements) in the political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

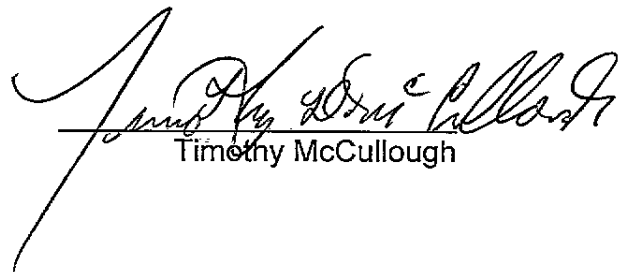

Provided, further, that if any time the corporation is deemed to be a private foundation as defined by section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1996 as amended from time to time, then for so long as the corporation is deemed a private foundation, the following provisions shall also be applicable:

1. The corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1996, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.
2. The corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1996, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.
3. The corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943 © of the Internal Revenue Code of 1996, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.
4. The corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1996 or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

ARTICLE VIII. DISTRIBUTION UPON DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the corporation. Assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 © (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to federal government for public purposes. Any such assets not so disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principle office of the corporation is then located.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, the undersigned subscriber, have hereunto set my hand and seal this 23 day of July 2001 for the purpose of forming this corporation under the laws of the state of Florida, and do hereby make and file in the office of the Secretary of the State of Florida these Articles of Incorporation and certify that the facts herein stated are true.
