Articles of Incorporation of Habitat for Humanity of Lake City/Columbia County, Inc.

This corporation is organized as a not-for-profit corporation under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes (2001), and as a tax exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

1. The name of the corporation is Habitat for Humanity of Lake City/Columbia County, Inc..
2. This corporation is a public benefit corporation.
3. The corporation shall have perpetual duration and succession in its corporate name.
4. The corporation shall have no members.
5. The purposes for which the corporation is organized are as follows:
 - (a) To witness to and implement the gospel of Jesus Christ in Florida and throughout the United States and the world by working with economically disadvantaged people to help them to create a better human habitat in which to live and work;
 - (b) To cooperate with other charitable organizations, through grants and otherwise, which are working to develop a better human habitat for economically disadvantaged people;
 - (c) To communicate the gospel of Jesus Christ by means of the spoken and written word;
 - (d) To receive, maintain, and accept as assets of the corporation, any property, whether real, personal, or mixed, by way of gift, bequest, devise, or purchase from any person, firm, trust, or corporation, to be held, administered, and disposed of exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and in accordance with and pursuant to the provisions of these articles of incorporation; but no gift, bequest, devise, or purchase of any such property shall be received or made and accepted if it is conditioned or limited in such manner as shall require the disposition of income or principal to any organization other than a "charitable organization" or for any purposes other than "charitable purposes" which would jeopardize the status of the corporation as an entity exempt from federal income tax pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended; and

- (e) To exclusively promote and carry on any other religious, charitable, or educational purposes and activities for which corporations may be organized and operated under the relevant provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes (2001).

6. The powers and activities of the corporation shall be limited as follows:

- (a) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to any of its members, trustees, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these articles of incorporation. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

- (b) Anything contained in these articles of incorporation to the contrary notwithstanding, the corporation shall not carry on or otherwise engage in any activities not permitted to be carried on or engaged in by: (I) a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or any corresponding section of any future tax code; (ii) a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or any corresponding section of any future tax code; or, (iii) a corporation organized and existing under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes.

7. In the event of the dissolution and liquidation of this corporation, to the extent allowed or permitted under applicable laws, the property and assets of the corporation shall be, as determined by the Board of Directors, distributed to or sold and the proceeds of such sales distributed to: (I) HFH International, Inc., a GA Nonprofit Corporation and a corporation exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended; or, (ii) any other organization(s) organized and operating for the same purposes for which the corporation is organized and operating or any organization(s), foundations, fund(s), or corporation(s) organized and operating exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, educational, or other purposes permitted by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, all of which such organizations, foundations, funds, or corporations shall be exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended. In the event that any assets are not disposed of in accordance with the provisions of these articles of incorporation or that the corporation shall fail to act within a reasonable time in the manner provided in these articles of incorporation, the Court of Columbia County shall, upon application of one or more persons having a real interest in the corporation or its assets, make such distributions as provided in these articles of incorporation.

8. The initial board of directors shall be elected by the incorporators listed below. The number of directors of the corporation and the method of their election shall be as provided in the bylaws.

9. The street address of the corporation's initial registered office is 3809 South First Street, Lake City, FL 32025, and the name of its initial registered agent at that office is David E. Mangrum.
