ARTICLE III: PURPOSE

The corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) (hereinafter the "Internal Revenue Code"); to preach and promote the gospel of Jesus Christ in the United States and in foreign countries through such methods as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine to be appropriate (including, without limitation, missionary trips to foreign countries and the provision of food to the needy in the United States and overseas); to relieve temporary need or distress of individuals brought to its attention; and to receive, invest in, hold, use and dispose of all property, real or personal, as may be necessary or desirable to carry into effect the aforementioned purpose.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE IV: POWERS

The Corporation shall have all powers conferred upon not for profit corporations organized under Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes and any successor provisions thereto now enacted or hereafter amended but shall exercise such powers only in fulfillment of its above-stated purposes.

The Corporation shall not engage in any of the following activities:

- (1) The Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.

(2) No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation; provided, however, that this provision shall not apply to activities consisting of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, to the extent the Corporation has made an election pursuant to and remains in compliance with the restrictions of Section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) No dividends shall be paid and no part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any private individual within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

At any time when the Corporation is or becomes a "private foundation" within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 617.0835 of the Florida Statutes, the following additional limitations on the Corporation's activities shall apply:

(1) The Corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) The Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined by Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) The Corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) The Corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to the tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(5) The Corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE V: MANNER OF ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The initial board of directors shall consist of three members. These members may by majority vote increase the number of directors and shall choose by majority vote any additional members. The directors in office at the time of any vacancy created by the death, resignation, or incapacity of an existing director may fill any such vacancy and choose a new director by majority vote.

ARTICLE VI: INITIAL DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS
