ARTICLE III: PURPOSE:

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The specific purpose(s) for which the corporation is organized (are): founded to provide emotional support to women confronted with crisis pregnancies by helping them find solutions to distressing circumstances causing them to feel they have "no choice" but abortion. We also help women and men facing unexpected pregnancy understand and realistically examine their desires, options, resources and responsibilities during this time of one of the most important and life changing decisions they will ever make. In addition, we are dedicated to help individuals heal emotionally from post-abortion syndrome. By giving support and understanding, the individuals can be released from the emotional pain, guilt or anger relating to the abortion and begin to experience true peace. Our commitment is to assist hurting individuals through counseling, by providing accurate information regarding prenatal development, pregnancy and abortion. Losing a child to an abortion, for a man has a painful aftermath. Therefore, we also provide men with healing whether giving consent or objecting to the final decision of abortion. As with all surgeries, abortion has hidden dangers with physical and emotional scars, that cannot be eliminated. Therefore, we offer support services during their time of crisis, and at the same time, be an advocate for the unborn child.

It is our prayer and purpose to provide women and men with hope for the future by meeting their emotional, and spiritual needs, also to shine the light of love, healing and support through the United States and all nations. We want them to know that they are not alone in their crisis and options are available.

ARTICLE VII: DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE VIII:

No part of the net earning of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

If reference to federal law in articles of incorporation imposes a limitation that is invalid in the state, you may wish to substitute the following for the last sentence of the preceding paragraph: "Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation."
