benefit of the Department of State, Division of Historical Resources, Mission San Luis property, at 2020 West Mission Road, Tallahassee, FL., 32304.

2. This corporation is organized and shall operate exclusively to solicit, receive, hold, invest, and administer property, and, subject to the approval of the Department of State, make expenditures to or for the interpretation, maintenance, and upkeep of the Mission San Luis property, in a manner consistent with the policies and goals of the Department in accordance with Florida Statutes Section 267.17 and 267.172.

3. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this corporation may exercise any and all, but no other, powers as are in furtherance of the exempt purposes of organizations set forth in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

4. No part of the income or principal of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to any director or officer of the corporation or any other person in such a fashion as to constitute an application of funds not in furtherance of a purpose of exempt organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

5. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, (except as otherwise provided in Section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986), and this corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.

6. In the event of the complete or partial liquidation or dissolution of this corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, no director or officer shall be entitled to any distribution or division of this corporation's property or its proceeds, and the balance of all money and other property received by the corporation from any source, after the payment of all debts and obligations of this corporation, shall be distributed exclusively to an organization or organizations which themselves are exempt as organizations described in Sections 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or to the federal, state or local government for exclusively public purposes.

ARTICLE V

DISSOLUTION

1. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed to the Department of State, Division of Historical Resources or its successor, to be used exclusively for the purposes hereinabove set forth, provided that such does not impair or destroy the tax exempt status to donations, contributions, legacies or dues received by this corporation to the extent that such tax exempt status shall be allowed under any applicable law or regulation.

2. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the assets of the Corporation are hereby irrevocably dedicated to charitable use; accordingly, in the event the Department of State, Division of Historical Resources, or its successors, fails to qualify to receive or otherwise fails to accept the Corporation's assets upon dissolution, the residual assets of the Corporation shall be turned over to one or more organizations which themselves are exempt as organizations described in Section 501 (c) (3) and Section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any prior or future law, or to a federal, state or local government for exclusive public purposes(s).

ARTICLE VI

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. The affairs of the corporation are to be managed initially by a Board of Directors of three (3). Additional Directors in any odd number may be added to the Board for terms of office as set forth in the duly adopted bylaws. Directors shall be appointed by the Secretary of State.

2. The names and addresses of the individuals, each of whom are 18 years of age or older, to serve on the initial Board of Directors are as follows:
