To whom it may concern,

We are sorry but we never received your Annual Report. We just checking on your web site about the corporation and we double check with our record, apparently we have never received and filed the annual report.

It's probably because we have a new address since January 2004. We have make all modifications on this report.

Please, we asking for voiding the penalty and we have joint a check for the fee payable

Thank you for your comprehension.
