Re: Jabez Mission #2, Inc.
Gentlemen,

Enclosed please find two copies of the Articles of Incorporation for the above nonprofit corporation. Attached is my check for $70. I am not sure it is needed, but out of an abundance of caution I am also enclosing a consent to use of similar name.

Please file the Articles and send me a stamped copy.

Thank you for your helpfulness.

Sincerely,

G. W. Hedman

Articles Of Incorporation
Of
Jabez Mission #2, Inc.

ARTICLE 1: Name: The name of the Corporation is JABEZ MISSION #2, INC.

ARTICLE 2: Duration: The duration of the Corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE 3: Purpose: The purposes for which this corporation is organized are exclusively religious, charitable, and educational within the meaning of §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

More particularly, the corporation will organize and present to the general public and to certain classes of clergy and religious students programs and presentations of evangelical and Christian religious nature, including financial and economic information designed to help churches and religious organizations thrive, at different places from time to time, in the USA and elsewhere, in the furtherance and exposition of the doctrines of Jesus Christ. These presentations will require the services of evangelical preachers, pastors, teachers, musicians, administrators, financial experts, and others whose services may be necessary or desirable to carry out these religious and educational activities.

The corporation may perform any of the following, by itself or in cooperation with any other like program: Purchase or lease and develop property, real, personal or mixed, build and operate churches, schools, seminaries, children's homes and meeting-places for Christian instruction, build and operate Christian nursing homes, retirement homes, assisted living facilities, youth camps, drug rehabilitation facilities and other like endeavors to increase and encourage belief in and observance of the doctrines of Jesus Christ. The corporation may use its own funds and credit for any such purposes and to arrange loans for the enhancement and expansion of the teaching of the doctrines of Jesus Christ, such as, for example, purchasing or constructing a new church or mission, or refinancing an existing property of such an organization. The corporation may accept and place funds received from other sources for like purposes, and may participate in jointly financed loans through a central source.

Provided, however, that the corporation shall not engage in any action which is not permitted to be carried on by nonprofit corporations under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and no part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, trustees, directors, officers, or other private persons; but the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation to such persons for services rendered.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

In any taxable year in which the corporation is a private foundation as described in §509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the corporation shall distribute its income for said period at such time and manner as not to subject it to tax under §4942 of the Code; and the corporation shall not (a) engage in any act of self dealing as defined in §4941(d) of the Code; (b) retain any excess business holdings as defined in §4943(c) of the Code; (c) make any investments in such manner as to subject the corporation to tax under §4944 of the Code; or (d) make any taxable expenditures as defined in §4945(d) of the Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

ARTICLE 4: Members: The Corporation shall have Voting Members who shall be elected and may be removed by the unanimous vote of the then incumbent Voting Members, and who shall have all the rights and privileges of members of the Corporation. The by-laws may provide for nonvoting Members of one or more classes, who shall be admitted in such manner and who shall have such rights and privileges as are set forth in the by-laws but who shall not have the right to vote. The name and address of each initial Voting Member is as follows:
