ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
FAITH HOMES, INCORPORATED

The undersigned, acting as incorporator(s) of a corporation pursuant to Chapter 617.0202, Florida Statutes, adopts the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation.

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation is:

Faith Homes, Incorporated

ARTICLE II

The principle place of business and mailing address of this corporation shall be:

Principle Address:

4565 Alpine Lane
Titusville, Florida 32780

Mailing Address:

PO Box 6653
Titusville, Florida 32782-6653

ARTICLE III

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

- A. The purposes for which this organization is organized are exclusively religious, charitable, scientific, literary and educational within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law
- B. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, this organization shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal Income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.
- C. Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the Federal, state or local government for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes.

The corporation will provide and administer educational, economic development, and/or health and human services as outlined in the by-laws of the corporation. Services of this kind may include, but are not limited to:

- ◆ Educational services for pre-kindergarten through high school youths that are considered at-risk, and are economically or socially challenged - these programs will be designed to promote educational enhancement and success by utilizing tutorial assistance (mathematics, language arts, science, etc.), remedial and developmental management.
- ◆ Economic empowerment services that include employment and job readiness training/referral, and life skills training programs - these initiatives may include apprenticeship, "YouthBuild", on-the-job training, and career counseling programs.
- ◆ Transitional housing assistance for youths that are exiting foster care programs, or other youths that may have mental and/or social (behavioral) challenges and may need assistance with daily living/household responsibilities or tasks.
- ◆ Individual, family, and group counseling in an effort to promote client self-sufficiency, a greater level of self-esteem, social development, and independence.
- ◆ Health and human services - counseling, case management, healthcare referral services, and housing for persons who may have mental/physical disabilities.
- ◆ Assisted living facilities and services for persons who are disabled between the ages of eighteen and above who are in need of assistance with daily living - feeding themselves, preparing meals, taking medications, respite and recovery services, etc.
