The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order or settlement shall not of itself create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in the manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation.

B. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section A. of this Article X, no indemnification shall be made in an action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been finally adjudged to be liable for gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification.

C. To the extent that any such person has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Sections A and B of this Article X, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

D. Any indemnification under Sections A and B of this Article X (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of any such person is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections A and B. Such determination shall be made either (a) by the Board of Directors by a three fourths (3/4) vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding; or (b) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion. If the determination is to be made by the Board of Directors, it may rely, as to all questions of law, on the advice of independent counsel.

E. Expenses incurred in defending an action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, administrative or investigative, may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized in the manner provided in Section D of this Article X upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Section.

F. Every reference herein to director or officer shall include former directors or officers, and their respective heirs, executors and administrators. The right of indemnification hereby provided shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which any director or officer may be entitled, including any right under policies of insurance that may be purchased and maintained by the Corporation or others, with respect to claims, issues, or matters in relation to which the Corporation would not have the power to indemnify such director or officer under the provisions of this Article X.
