ARTICLE III - PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

- A. To train and equip humanitarian aid agencies, mission organizations, and indigenous people in frontier areas throughout the world.
- B. To develop tools and training systems with emphasis on use by isolated indigenous people groups who are more often than not beyond the reach of roads, electricity, and mass media and therefore under-served in areas of education, healthcare, and other services enjoyed by peoples of more populated and developed areas.
- C. To train amongst others, indigenous followers of Christ and Christian missionaries to use these technologies to overcome barriers which have limited the spread of the Gospel and the delivery of relief services in frontier areas; and, to train them to train others.
- D. To explain to Christians in North America and developed countries the harm of certain missionary methods that have become popular but which create counterproductive results such as dependency, in under-developed indigenous communities and the impossibility of accomplishing Christ's Great Commission (Matthew 28: 18-20) when the goal is sought to be attained predominately through the use of non-native missionaries and church leaders.

- E. To inform and instruct the Christian community that all believers in Christ, including our indigenous brothers and sisters, not only have the capacity to play a meaningful roll in the carrying out of the Great Commission, but, by its very definition, have a mandate from God to do so.
- F. To carry out any activities in keeping with Christ's Great Commission as recorded in the New Testament, which are intended to deliver physical, emotional, and spiritual aid to any and all peoples in need regardless of their nationality, geographical location, or spiritual and political persuasion.
