To Whom It May Concern:

It has come to our attention that the Cabo Blanco Homeowners' Association has been dissolved due to our failure to file the 2003 corporation annual report/uniform business report as required by law.

As we are a recently formed Association, we are still in the process of organizing, understanding and assigning responsibilities. Our mail, however, does go to a central location, and we did not receive a second notice September 10 or any time after that date. As we have very little money available, we are asking that the Florida Department of State Division of Corporations please waive the $175.00 Reinstatement Fee.

After speaking an individual named "Tom G." at the Division of Corporations, he advised us to attach this letter explaining our situation, along with the Annual Report Fee. Enclosed please find a check for $61.25, the fee for the Annual Report. If more information is needed from the Cabo Blanco Homeowners' Association, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at: 904-241-4779.

In Partnership,

Johnny Hagans
President
Cabo Blanco Homeowners' Association
