ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
LAZY RIVER VILLAGE, INC.

The undersigned subscribers associate themselves through these Articles in order to form a corporation not-for-profit under the laws of the State of Florida, and do hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of the corporation shall be Lazy River Village, Inc., hereinafter referred to as the "association" or the "corporation".

ARTICLE II

PURPOSES

1. This corporation is formed as a homeowner's association pursuant to §§83.7710, 83.7720 and 83.7730, Florida Statutes (1983), for the purposes therein set forth.
2. The association has the power to negotiate for, acquire, and operate the Lazy River Village mobile home park, the address of which is 10500 South Trail, North Port, Florida 33596, on behalf of the residents. The mobile home park, once acquired, shall be converted to a condominium or to a cooperative form of ownership. Upon acquisition of the property, in the case of conversion to condominium, the association shall be the entity which creates a condominium or offers condominium parcels for sale or lease in the ordinary course of business, or, in the case of conversion to cooperative, the entity that owns the record interest in the property and that is responsible for the operation of property.
3. The association may contract, sue or be sued with respect to the exercise or nonexercise of its powers. For these purposes the powers of the association include, but are not limited to, the maintenance, management, and operation of the park property. The association may institute, maintain, settle, or appeal actions or hearings in its name on behalf of all owners concerning matters of common interest, including, but not limited to, the common property; structural components of a building or other improvements; mechanical, electrical, and plumbing elements serving the park property; and protests of ad valorem taxes on commonly used facilities. If the association has the authority to maintain a class action, the association may be joined in an action as representative of that class with reference to litigation and disputes involving the matters for which the association could bring a class action. Nothing herein limits any statutory or common law right of any individual owner or class of owners to bring any action which may otherwise be available.

4. The powers and duties of the association include those set forth in these articles of incorporation and in the association bylaws, and any recorded declarations or restrictions encumbering the park property, if not inconsistent with this chapter.

5. The association has the power to make and collect assessments and to lease, maintain, repair, and replace the common areas.

6. The association shall maintain accounting records in the county where the property is located, according to good accounting practices. The records shall be open to inspection by association members or their authorized representatives at reasonable times, and written summaries of such records shall be supplied at least annually to such members or their authorized representatives. Failure of the association to permit inspection of the association's accounting records by members or their authorized representatives entitles any person prevailing in an enforcement action to recover reasonable attorney's fees from the person in control of the books and records who, directly or indirectly, knowingly denies access to the books and records for inspection. The records shall include, but shall not be limited to:

- a. A record of all receipts and expenditures.
 - b. An account for each member, designating the name and current mailing address of the member, the amount of each assessment, the dates and amounts in which the assessments come due, the amount paid upon the account, and the balance due.
7. The association has the power to purchase lots in the park and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage, and convey them.
8. The association shall use its best efforts to obtain and maintain adequate insurance to protect the association and the park property. A copy of each policy of insurance in effect shall be made available for inspection by owners at reasonable times.
9. The association has the authority, without the joinder of any unit owners, to modify or move any easement for ingress and egress or for the purposes of utilities if the easement constitutes part of or crosses the park property. This section does not authorize the association to modify or move any easement created in whole or in part for the use or benefit of anyone other than the members, or crossing the property of anyone other than the members, without their consent or approval as required by law or the instrument creating the easement. Nothing in this section affects the rights of ingress or egress of any member of the association.
10. The association shall have all common-law and statutory powers permitted a corporation not-for-profit under Florida law which do not conflict with these articles of incorporation, the association bylaws, any declarations or restrictions encumbering the park property, or any applicable statute otherwise governing the association, and all powers consistent with such authority which are reasonably necessary to fulfill the purposes of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

The membership of this association shall consist of all persons who are or who hereinafter become the owners of mobile homes or other residences at the Lazy River Village mobile home park and the owners of each mobile home or residence shall have collectively one (1) vote.
