ARTICLE III

The period of duration of the Corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE IV

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, and educational purposes, including for such purposes as the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any federal tax code. The Corporation may receive and administer funds for charitable, religious and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and to that end, the Corporation is empowered to hold any property, or any individual interest therein, without limitation as to amount or value; to dispose of any such property and to invest, reinvest, or deal with the principal or the income in such manner as, in the judgment of directors, will best promote the purpose of the Corporation, without limitation, except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which such property is received, these Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws of the Corporation, or any applicable laws, to do any other act or thing incidental to or connected with the foregoing purposes or in advancement thereof, but not for the pecuniary profit or financial gain of it directors or officers except as permitted under the Not-for-Profit Corporation Law.

ARTICLE V

The sole class of members of this Corporation shall be its Board of Directors. The members of this Corporation shall have no right, title or interest whatsoever in its income, property or assets, nor shall any portion of such income, property or assets, be distributed to any member on the winding up or dissolution of the Corporation. Members of the Corporation shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities or obligations of the Corporation and shall not be subject to any assessments.

ARTICLE VI

The name and Florida street address of the initial Registered Agent are:

ARTICLE X

Subject to the limitations contained in the Bylaws, and any limitations set forth in the Corporations Not for Profit Laws of the State of Florida, concerning corporate action that must be authorized or approved by the members of the Corporation, Bylaws of this Corporation may be made, altered, amended, rescinded, added to, or new Bylaws may be adopted, either by a resolution of the Board of Directors or by following the procedure set forth therefor in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE XI

Amendments to these Articles of Incorporation may be proposed by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors and presented to a quorum of members for their vote. Amendments may be adopted by the vote of two-thirds of a quorum of the directors.

ARTICLE XII

The property of the Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes and no part of the income or assets of the Corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer or member thereof, or to the benefit of any private individual. This corporation shall have no capital stock and shall have no capital stock and shall pay no dividends to its incorporator, Board of Directors, officers or members. All income and assets of the Corporation, above necessary expenses, shall be administered solely and exclusively for the charitable corporate purposes selected by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XIII

Upon the dissolution or winding up of this Corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of the Corporation shall be distributed to a non-profit fund, foundation or corporation, which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and which has established its tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, should the Corporation has established its own tax-exempt status. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas in the County in which the Principal Office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE XIV

The Corporation shall indemnify any officer, board member or employee of the Corporation, or any former officer or employee of the Corporation, to the full extent permitted by and set forth in the Florida Corporation Act.

ARTICLE XV

The Corporation shall not allow any part of its income to inure to the benefit of officers, directors or members of the Corporation, or to any other individuals, except in the furtherance of its charitable purposes. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in, the publication or distribution of statements for any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
