ARTICLE III Amendment:

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes with the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. To habilitate nonviolent offenders by offering treatment and aftercare programs. To strengthen the nonviolent offender's family ties by mentoring and tutoring their children and providing religious instructions to both.

Upon dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
