To Whom It May Concern:

It has just come to our attention that the Annual Corporate Report for our organization is due at this time. Enclosed is the completed report form along with our check for the year. At the direction of your office, the purpose of this letter is to also confirm that we did not receive the notification regarding the 2004 reporting period. This was probably due to the fact that we moved to a new office location (as noted above) in January and experienced temporary problems with the delivery of our mail. We were also advised by your office that this year's notifications were sent out via post card, which could have more easily gotten lost in the mail.

We thank you very much for your assistance in this matter, and please let us know if any further action is needed on our part.

Sincerely,

Marcia Elder
Chair
