Income Tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

9. Upon dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the Federal, state or local government for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction, in the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes. In the event the corporation is dissolved, all assets are to return to the unincorporated church. In the event the corporation and the church are dissolved, all assets are to be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

10. To the extent allowed by the laws of the State of Florida, no present or future director of the corporation (or his or her estate, heirs and personal representatives) shall be liable to the corporation or its members for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director of the corporation. Any liability of a director (or his or her estate, heirs and personal representatives) shall be further eliminated or limited to the fullest extent allowed by the laws of the State of Florida, as may hereafter be adopted or amended.

11. With respect to claims or liabilities arising out of service as a director or officer of the corporation, the corporation shall indemnify and advance expenses to each present and future director and officer (and his or her estate, heirs and personal representatives) to the fullest extent allowed by the laws of Florida, both as now in effect and as hereafter adopted or amended.

12. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, members, or other private individuals or persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for goods and services rendered and to make payments in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the paragraph just above.

13. This charter may be amended at any time or times upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Corporation represented in person and voting at any regular meeting of the members or any special meeting of the members called for that purpose, provided that the quorum requirements have been satisfied and provided that no amendment shall authorize action in any manner or for any manner or for any purpose contrary to the provisions of Section 501(c)3 of the Code or the laws of the State of Florida. All other questions shall be determined by a majority vote of the members of the Corporation present in person and voting at such meetings (provided that the quorum requirements have been satisfied) unless otherwise provided herein or in the Bylaws.
