ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
CROWN THE KING CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP, INC.

I, the undersigned subscribe to these articles of incorporation, being a natural person competent to contract, hereby associate myself for the purpose of constituting a Church, to operate in accordance with the laws of God and in a non-profit form pursuant to the applicable provision of the statutes in Compliance with the Chapter 617, F.S., of the State of Florida relative to corporations not for profit; and I hereby covenant and agree as follows:

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this not for profit church corporation shall be
CROWN THE KING CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP, INC.

This church may, for convenience, be referred to as CROWN THE KING

ARTICLE II. PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal place of business and mailing address of this corporation shall be 5273 Crump Road, P.O. Box 16131, Tallahassee, Florida 32309, or at such other location as may from time to time be designated by the Governing Body, known as the Council of Elders.

ARTICLE III. PURPOSES

The objectives and purposes for which this church is constituted and this corporation is organized are:

Section 1. To disseminate the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the Word of God, to the end that the people of God may be conformed to the image of Jesus Christ.

Section 2. To bring both families of believers and individual believers in the Lord Jesus Christ together in personal fellowship, both in the home and in cell groups.

Section 3. To regularly assemble together the members of this Church for fellowship one with another and to worship God in Spirit and in Truth; and to cooperate in the assembling of the whole body of Christ.

Section 4. To provide basic New Testament discipleship to all members.

Section 5. To involve every member of this Church in its fellowship and activities and in the move of the Holy Spirit.

Section 6. To solve family and marital problems so that the home life of each member is healthy and fruitful by Biblical standards.

Section 7. To baptize in water; to anoint the sick with oil; to marry; to dedicate infants; to celebrate the Lord's Supper; and to bury.

Section 8. To act with charitable concern for, and to help, not only all members of this Church, but also all men in need of any help which this Church can give, regardless of race, social position, or religious affiliation; to develop and carry out programs of social action for the poor and indigent, widowed, orphaned, afflicted, imprisoned, underprivileged, or aged persons, both within and without the Fellowship.

Section 9. To pray for the needs of all men and for local and national leaders and governments.

Section 10. To support and encourage communication and extension of the Christian life and witness by sound and comprehensive preaching and teaching of the Holy Bible and of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ to all men; both within this Fellowship and elsewhere, not only by conventional modes, but also by all means which will accomplish such communication, extension, teaching and preaching, including but not limited to:

- A. Media of communication developed by modern technology; and in aid of such communication, extension, preaching and teaching.
- B. But not for private profit, to sponsor, participate in, conduct or engage in radio broadcasting ministry

- E. Removal. When a member moves a considerable distance from the church and does not regularly attend nor contribute to the church's general welfare, neglects to stay in contact with this church or sister churches with a period of three months, will be removed from the church's membership.

ARTICLES VIII. TERM OF EXISTENCE

This corporation shall exist perpetually unless dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE IX. COUNCIL OF ELDERS; ELDERS/PASTORS; DEACONS:

Section 1. The Senior Pastor and the Council of Elders shall constitute the appointed officers of this church.

Section 2. All officers shall be active members as set forth in Article VII, and shall be at least twenty one (21) years old.

Section 3. The Council of Elders assist the Senior Pastor in administering of legal affairs of corporation and church.

Section 4. The Senior Pastor is the Overseer of the church and shall direct all the corporation and shall perform duties of the church and the Council of Elders. He/She shall be an ex-officio member of all special meetings, conventions, or revival campaigns. No person shall be invited to speak or preach in the church without his/her approval. In case of resignation or expiration of the Senior Pastor, the Co-Pastor or next in line of authority shall assume pastorate, the new pastorate shall be placed in position in full agreement with the General overseer/Apostle of the Network Ministries.

Section 5. Co-Pastor is designated by the Senior Pastor and the Council of Elders to assist the Senior Pastor in carrying out the duties of the church.

Section 6. Associate Pastors. The Senior Pastor acting in consultation with the Council of Elders shall add Associates Pastors as be determined and needed for each one. The Senior Pastor shall be responsible for selecting each associate Pastor and they shall work under his/her authority and be directly responsible to him/her.

Section 7. The Council Of Elders. The Senior Pastor and appointed ruling Elders shall constitute the Council of Elders of Crown The King and shall serve as the elders of the church in all of it's ministries and activities. The Council of Elders shall be available to serve as council to the Senior Pastor in all matters pertaining to the church.

The Senior Pastor in consultation with the Council of Elders shall direct the affairs of this Church, both spiritual and secular. They shall be referred to as the Council of Elders and which shall consist of not less than three (3) members who shall be referred to as Ruling Elders. The minimum number of Council of Elders may be increased in accordance with the needs of the Church as determined from time to time by the Council of Elders. The ruling Elders themselves must be members of the Church; they must possess the qualifications of Elders as set forth in the relevant teachings of the New Testament and they shall have the duties of Elders as set forth therein. Subject to the provisions of Section 617,0801 Florida Statutes and to any rules or by-laws, which the Council of Elders may adopt, the ruling Elders of this Church shall be authorized to conduct weddings and funerals. Ruling Elders once set in office shall serve so long as they remain members of the Church unless sooner removed as set forth hereinafter.

The Council of Elders shall appoint such Elders, in addition to the Ruling Elders, as may be necessary to properly minister to the membership and carry out the purposes for which this Church is organized. Elders so appointed must possess all of the qualifications of Ruling Elders, as set forth in the first paragraph of this article IX, shall have the duties of Elders as set forth in the New Testament; and once appointed shall serve so long as they remain members of this church unless sooner removed as set forth hereinafter according.

The initial Ruling Elders, as set forth in Article V hereof, shall be deemed to have been set in office as of the time these Articles are approved and filed by the Secretary of State of the State of Florida. Thereafter, in the event of a vacancy on the Council of Elders, whether caused by resignation, removal, death, or expansion of the Council, the Ruling Elders then serving shall suggest to the Senior Pastor of the Church in the name of a member (who may be an Elder) deemed to be qualified to serve. If there be no unresolved objection, the Ruling Elders shall suggest another name, and the process shall continue until the vacancy or vacancies shall have been filled.

The Council of Elders will make effort to act with unanimity; but in any event all actions of the Council of Elders shall be with the concurrence of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the ruling Elders.

The Council of Elders shall be responsible for the maintenance of scriptural discipline within the Church and its membership, as well as for the maintenance of membership standards. In the event the Council of Elders, after due examination, should decide that a member no longer fulfills the requirements for membership, his membership shall be terminated, and he shall be appropriately notified. Similarly, if the Council of Elders, after due examination, should determine that an Elder or ruling Elder no longer fulfills the requirements for Elder, but not necessarily from his membership in the Church, unless he shall also no longer fulfill the requirements for Church membership.

Any decision of the Council of Elders, shall be final and not subject to any appeal to any higher church court or other body.

Section 8. The Deacon Board. In Keeping with the scriptural definition of a deacon and being derived from the Greek word diakos, meaning "to run errands", also it is understood that deacons are servants. They are chosen to assist the Senior Pastor in the carrying out of ministry to members of Crown The King and that they shall serve under his/her direction in those areas of responsibility which are defined in the by laws as well as in other areas of ministry which may be defined and assigned to them by the Council of Elders. It is understood that deacons are not chosen to represent the people, and it is further understood that deacons acting individually or collectively do not have authority over the Senior Pastor or the Council of Elders.

Each member of the Deacon Board should reflect a high moral and spiritual standard and should be an example of stewardship by faithfully attending the services of Crown The King and consistently supporting its ministry financially as well as promoting a harmonious fellowship among its members. Each member of the Deacon Board shall meet qualification as stated in I Timothy 3:8 -13, Titus 1:5 shall not be interpreted to exclude from membership on the Deacon Board men who are now married and have a surviving wife from a previous marriage. No member of the Deacon board shall be a member of secret organization, or member of any group advocating change through violence. The Council of Elders shall select the members of the Deacon Board. The term of office shall be one year. Any member of the Deacon board may be removed by an act of the Council of Elders and Deacon

Board. Grounds for such action shall be:

- A. Unscriptural conduct,
- B. Doctrinal departure from the tenets of faith,
- C. Incompetence of office,
- D. Sowing contention, strife, or discord,
- E. For any good and sufficient cause.

Any incumbent under charges shall have opportunity for a fair and impartial hearing of his case before before special committee appointed by pastor. In case of a vacancy on the Deacon Board, if there are more than one month remaining on the term of office for the person having been in that office, the Senior Pastor shall call for a special meeting to elect a replacement to fill the unexpired term.

No Elder or minister will receive any salary from the church other than the Senior Pastor, for office calling. Salary will be paid for day time duties assigned by this ministry to those hired by the Senior Pastor. The Senior Pastor in consultation with the Council of Elders shall have the authority to hire and/or appoint other officers and staff members as needed to carry out the ministry of this church. The Officers shall be subject to the Senior Pastors.

ARTICLE X. MEETINGS

Section 1. Meetings for public worship shall be held on each Lord's Day and during the week as may be established under the direction of the Senior Pastor.

Section 2. There shall be business meetings of the board of directors at this time, and they will be informed on financial matters and other matters that need to be considered. This meeting shall be held in January of each year.

Section 3. Leadership of this church will meet once a month when possible. A majority of the Council of Elders (leadership) shall constitute a quorum, and no business of the church shall be transacted at any meeting without the presence of the Senior Pastor.

Section 4. Special business meetings of this church may be called by the Senior Pastor when necessary. Notice will be given to allow all members an opportunity to attend.

Section 5. No certain percentage of the membership shall be required to be present for any regular or special business meeting in order for the meeting to be conducted as announced. The Senior Pastor shall have the authority to postpone any regular or special business meeting if in his/her judgment a sufficient number of members to accurately express the will of the people is not present at the announced time of the meeting.

ARTICLE X. BY-LAWS

The Council of Elders shall provide such by-laws for the conduct of its business and the business of the Church as the Council may deem necessary from time to time. Such by-laws may be amended, altered, or rescinded, by a majority vote of the Elders present at any regular meeting or any special meeting called for that purpose.

ARTICLE XI. AMENDMENTS

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended at any special meeting of the Council of Elders called for that purpose, or at any regular meeting of the Council of Elders; provided, however, that notice of the fact that an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation is to be considered shall be given in writing to the ruling Elders at least one week prior to the date of such meeting. Upon adoption by the Council of Elders, and upon filing with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida, the amendment shall become effective as to these Articles of Incorporation shall ever conflict with the purposes and powers of this Church as set forth in Articles III and IV hereof.

ARTICLE XII. DISSOLUTION

This corporation may be dissolved only pursuant to the agreement of two-thirds (2/3) of the full Council of Elders. In the event of such dissolution, the Council of Elders with consultation and approval of the Apostle of the network shall, after paying or making provision for payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organizations under section 501©(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Council of Elders shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of Leon, County, Florida, if the principal office of the corporation, or by the Circuit Court (or equivalent thereof) of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as the said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
