SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The undersigned, acting as incorporators of a not-for-profit corporation for under the Florida General Corporation Act, Florida Statutes (F.S) Chapter 617, adopts the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation.

EFFECTIVE DATE

ARTICLE I.

NAME: The name of this corporation is NORTHWEST FLORIDA'S HOPE FOR YOU FESTIVAL, INC. and the principal place of business and mailing address shall be 797 North Pearl Street, Crestview, FL 32536.

ARTICLE II.

DURATION: The corporation shall exist perpetually.

ARTICLE III.

PURPOSE: Subject to the limitations set for in Article V hereof, the purpose of the corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which not-for-profit corporations may be organized under the general corporation law of Florida. This corporation is formed exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes which include the following:

- a) The invitation and promotion for the Northwest Florida Area of an evangelist and team from the Scott Dawson Evangelistic Association for a united evangelistic crusade to be held July 11-14, 2002, called the Northwest Florida Hope for You Festival (the "Festival").
- b) To conduct religious services during the period of the Festival stated in (a) above, which will be open to the public without admission charge, with services to be held each night.
- c) To solicit funds from individuals, businesses and corporations, and to receive offerings from people attending the services during the Festival to meet the anticipated expenses necessary to care for the financial needs of the Festival, in accordance with Chapter 496, F.S.

- d) To receive and disburse the funds collected for the expenses incurred for items such as advertising, venue rental, Festival materials, operating expenses, program expenses, youth scholarships and other costs and expenses essential to the success of the Festival and the corporation.
- e) To engage in no other activity than the promotion, conduct and completion of the Festival, and to see to it that persons serving on various committees of the corporation do so on a voluntary basis with financial compensation for their efforts in the promotion or conduct of the Festival, and to operate the Festival solely and exclusively on a benevolent basis.
- f) To strengthen local churches and enrich the community's Christian life.
- g) To engage in any lawful act or activity for which non profit corporations may be organized under Florida law.

ARTICLE IV.

POWERS AND AUTHORITY: To accomplish the objectives and purposes of the corporation as limited above, the corporation shall have the power, subject to the limitations hereafter provided:

- a) To solicit, accept and collect pledges, donations, contributions and gifts in cash or in property, and to take and to hold by bequest, devise, gift and purchase or lease, either absolutely or in trust, for its objects and purposes of any of them, any property without limitation as to the amount, except such limitation, if any, as may be imposed by law; to sell, convey and dispose of any property and to invest and reinvest the principal thereof, and to deal with and to expend the income there from or the principal thereof for any of the corporation's objectives and purposes, without limitation, except such limitations, if any as may be contained in the instrument under which such property is received; to receive any property in trust under the terms of any will, deed of trust, or other trust instrument for the foregoing purposes, and in administering the same to carry out the directions and to exercise the powers contained in the trust instrument under which the property is received, including the expenditure of principal and income for one or more of such purposes if authorized or directed in the trust instrument under which it is received.
- b) To create and control other corporations, foundations or organizations deemed advisable to best accomplish the purposes of this corporation.
- c) To acquire by purchase, lease, contract or otherwise, any property, stocks, bonds, notes and other interests or obligations of corporations, partnerships or other business organizations.
- d) To own, hold, sell, convey, lease, and otherwise manage, contract with reference to, or dispose of all or any part of its assets on any lawful terms and conditions, and likewise to invest all proceeds and income of such assets in any type or kind of property as appears advisable and as permitted to not-for-profit corporations by law, and if deemed advisable by the board of directors, the corporation may enter into any general, special or limited partnership as a general, special or limited partner or into any joint venture or similar agreement.

- e) To borrow money, execute notes, mortgages, trust indentures, bonds, and to enter into such other contracts as shall be deemed advisable by the board of trustees and in furtherance of the purposes of the corporation.
- f) To have and maintain such office or offices and related equipment as are necessary to administer the affairs of the corporation and to do any and all things necessary in the premises in order to effectively receive, administer, manage, operate, disburse, and control any funds and/or property of any nature which the corporation may have.
- g) To give, contribute, pay or transfer any and all funds and assets of the corporation, from time to time, as specifically allowed in these articles or under the bylaws of the corporation.

ARTICLE V.

LIMITATIONS: In fulfilling its objectives and purposes, the corporation shall be subject to the following limitations:

- a) At no time, either on dissolution or prior thereto, shall any part of the funds, assets or net earnings of the corporation inure to the benefit of any private individual (except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III), nor be used for the purpose of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The corporation shall at no time participate in or intervene in any way, including the publishing or distributing of statements, in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
- b) If the corporation is found to be a private foundation, as that term is defined in Section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws (all references herein to the Code shall include reference to any successor or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws), the corporation shall conduct its business and distribute its income as necessary for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Code.
- c) If the corporation is found to be a private foundation, as that term is defined in Section 509 of the Code, the corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, shall not retain any excess business holdings, as defined in Section 4943 (c) of the Code, shall not make any investments in such a manner as to subject the corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code, and shall not make any taxable expenditures, as defined in Section 4954(d) of the Code.

d) No member, director, trustee or officer of the corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation.

e) The corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section (509)(a)(3)(A) of the Code. At no time, either on dissolution or prior thereto, shall any part of the net earnings of the corporation inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, trustees, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set for in Article IV. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on or propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or intervene in (including the publishing and distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section (170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
