Re: Lauderhill Homeowner's Association, Inc.

You will find enclosed a UBR for the homeowner's association that was returned for an additional signature. Somehow the returned form was swallowed up by the other paperwork I have in my home office. After receiving the dissolution notice, and while trying to find the bank statement to see if the check had ever cleared, I found the enclosed UBR and freaked out!!! We are a very small homeowner's association with limited funds, and a ditz for a President (me).

The original UBR was sent in timely with a check way back when, and it was an accident that the enclosed form fell into the paper pit at my house. With this in mind I am BEGGING you - please don't assess any penalties for reinstatement. Our treasury would collapse if we had to pay additional fees and we couldn't afford any more block parties. My neighbors would hang me from a telephone pole if that happened.

Thank you so much for your consideration in this disaster. If you should have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me at the cell # I have provided in the letterhead.

Sincerely,

LAUDERHILL HOMEOWNER'S ASSOCIATION, INC.

Chris Brannon
President
