Pursuant to the provisions of section 617.1006, Florida Statutes, this Florida Not For Profit Corporation adopts the following amendments to its Articles of Incorporation:

Article III
Purpose

The corporation shall be organized for the purpose of promoting student spirit towards the Amos P. Godby High School Volleyball athletic program, providing financial support to the Godby High School Volleyball program, raising funds for the Godby High School Volleyball program, raising funds for the Godby High School Volleyball program for equipment and other needs not provided through other budgetary channels, sponsor certain non-fund raising projects which the membership deems necessary and beneficial to the Godby High School Volleyball program and shall have all powers relating thereto, and for all other business purposes which are lawful under the laws of the State of Florida and shall have all powers available to effectuate such purpose including powers provided by law.

Moreover, Godby Volleyball Boosters, Inc. shall be corporately organized and at all times operated exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article IX
Unrelated Trade and Business and Trade

The corporation shall not substantially engage in income producing activities unrelated to its tax-exempt purposes, or be operated for the primary purpose of carrying on an unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article X
Private Inurement

All corporate property is irrevocably dedicated to the religious charitable purposes set forth in Article Three hereof. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustee, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Three hereof. No director, trustee, or officer of the corporation, or private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets upon dissolution of the corporation.

Article XI
Limitations

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Moreover, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

Article XII
Debt Obligations and Personal Liability

No member, officer, director, employee, or volunteer of this corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of this corporation of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property of the members, officers, directors, employees, or volunteer be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this corporation. Consistent with the state law governing nonprofit corporations, the private property of the members, officers, directors, employees, and volunteers of the corporation shall be exempt from all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation of any kind whatsoever and members, officers, directors, employees and other volunteers of this corporation shall not be personally liable in that capacity, for a claim based upon an act or omission of the person performed in the discharge of the person's duties, except for a breach of the duty of loyalty to the corporation, for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law, or for a transaction from which the person derives an improper private inurement or personal benefit.

Article XIII
Dissolution

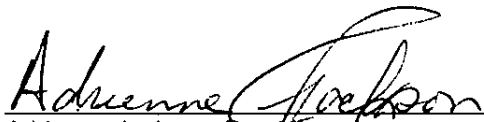

Upon dissolution of the corporation, the membership, must, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, distribute any assets of the corporation to one or more organizations recognized as one organized exclusively for charitable purposes similar to those outlined in the Articles of Incorporation or a similar corporation willing to accept the assets.

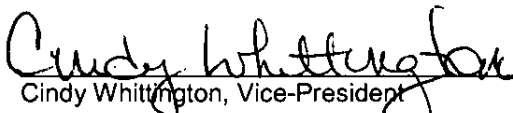

Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of shall be distributed for one or more of exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

by such execution, affirms the understanding that should any of the information in these Articles of Amendment to Articles of Incorporation of Godby Volleyball Boosters, Inc. be intentionally or knowingly misstated, he is subject to the criminal penalties for perjury set forth in state law as if this document had been executed under oath.

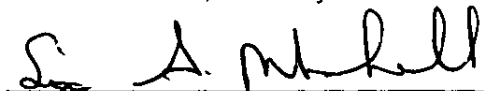

The aforesaid amendments were duly adopted by the members of Godby Volleyball Boosters, Inc. by a number of votes as were sufficient for approval, and further duly adopted by the Board of Directors.

The effective date of these Articles of Amendment to Articles of Incorporation of Godby Volleyball Boosters, Inc. as duly adopted by the Board of Directors is the 29 day of MAY, 2009.
