October 15, 2003

Florida Department of State
Office of Glenda Hood
Division of Corporations

Dear Sir or Madam:

Per a conversation with Steve at the Division of Corporations at 850.245.6059 on October 15, 2003, I was requested to submit this letter with the refiling of the corporation documents. The original document was filed in February of 2003. The check for the filing fee was check #0526, and was processed on 2/26/03. I received a letter dated March 4, 2003 that my check was received but that paperwork errors had occurred. The form was again resubmitted. I paid the additional fee of, $ 8.75 for a certificate of status. I received another copy of the uniform business report with a file date of 9/10/03. I submitted a third document. (Two in hard copy one online) Per Steve at your office, I should have received a letter requesting an EIN to correct another paperwork error. While I can understand the need to complete paperwork correctly, I do not feel I was duly notified of the additional error, and because my monies were removed from my account in February of 2003, I feel that this corporation should be reinstated without additional charge, or with the additional charged waived. I appreciate your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Laura Meissen
Chief Executive Officer
