Article VIII TERMINATION

The corporation and its property shall be forever devoted to spiritual and benevolent purposes. No officer, member or employee thereof shall receive any pecuniary profit from the organization, except that employees shall receive reasonable compensation for services in effecting one or more of its purposes. In the event of the dissolution of the organization, its property shall become vested in, and its function as a trustee, if any, organized and operated exclusively for benevolent or charitable purposes, provided such organizations have received exemption under Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code, which the membership shall designate at a Meeting called before the said dissolution, or, in the absence of such determination, as the Superior Court of the State of Florida shall determine.
