WPCAC -I

The W.P.C.A. is a nonprofit organization made up of a group of civic leaders and county leaders, who are also clergy persons. It is an interdenominational and inter-cultural group. The clergy persons are members of various congregations whose common bond is to assist the larger community in alleviating crime, delinquency, teenage pregnancy and drug and alcohol abuse in our communities.

As a pastoral group, we do not function under any designed "church" doctrine, but rather, as religious leaders, being involved in the welfare of our community. Proselytizing is forbidden, however, soliciting other clergy members is permitted. This organization wants to serve the community in any way we can. We are an extension of the church reaching out to help solve problems. Our mission is to aid the elderly, help educate the youth, provide for the homeless, set moral standards for our community and assist our public agencies (Miami- Dade Police Department, City of Miami Police Department, Department of Juvenile Justice, Miami-Dade County Public Schools over 300,000 parishioners and other municipalities and agencies).
