TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

We, the undersigned, with other persons being desirous of forming a non-profit corporation for the conduct of programs for research and treatment of blood-borne viral and bacterial diseases, hereby make, substitute and acknowledge and file these Articles of Incorporation for the purpose of becoming a corporation under the laws of the State of Florida providing for the formation, liability, rights, privileges and immunities of a non-profit corporation.

ARTICLE I

The name of the Corporation shall be:

FOUNDATION FOR THE STUDY AND TREATMENT OF BLOOD-BORNE
VIRAL AND BACTERIAL DISEASES, INCORPORATED

ARTICLE II

This corporation is organized exclusively for medical research and treatment purposes, including, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

ARTICLE III

This corporation is organized as a non-profit corporation; it will not have or issue shares of stock. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees,, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Articles II and IV hereof. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation , and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future Untied States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE IV

The purpose of this non-profit corporation shall be primarily for the conduct of medical research and treatment of blood-borne viral and bacterial diseases, and also to do any and all and every other thing necessary or proper for the accomplishment of the objects enumerated in these Articles of Incorporation or any Amendment thereto, or necessary, incidental to, or desirable for the attainment of the objects set forth herein, so long as the same shall not involve carrying on any activity not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE V

The foregoing statement of purposes shall be construed as a statement of purposes and powers, and shall be liberally construed in aid of the powers of this corporation, and the enumeration of specific powers shall not be construed as to limit in any manner the aforesaid general powers, but are in furtherance of, and in addition to, and not in limitation to said general powers. The corporation shall exercise all corporate powers of every kind whatsoever relative to the acquisition, use, disposition, whether by exchange, purchase, receipt of contributions, loans, lease, borrowing or by any other manner, of real and personal property, including without limitation all forms of real or personal property which may be used in or in connection with its lawful activities, and to exercise any and all other corporate powers authorized by the State of Florida, under the provisions of the Florida Statutes, governing corporations, and all other powers hereafter authorized by law, so long as the same are not inconsistent with the purposes set forth above, and so long as they shall not constitute activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE VI

In the event of the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, education, religious or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Revenue Law), as the Board of Trustees shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court (or such court succeeding to its authority) of the County in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
