Dear Mr. Toner,

Thank you for taking the time to speak with me the other day regarding corporation reinstatement. Per our conversation, I am enclosing copies of forms for filing annual report for corporations with explanation why annual reports were not filed.

As I told you in our conversation, I mailed the forms and fees for the enclosed corporations. The address was the same so I put them all in the same envelope with separate forms and check for fees. It has just come to my attention these corporations have been reported dissolved because 2003 reports were not filed.

You instructed me to check my bank statements to see if checks cleared. If so, send front and back copies of checks. If not, send copies of forms I submitted with fees for reinstatement. The checks did not clear the bank. Reports were obviously lost in the mail.

Please except this letter as explanation for 2003 Reports not filed for the enclosed Corporation.

I mailed the form with checks for filing fees the last of April, 2003. Per your instruction, I am enclosing a copy of my copies for corporation reinstatement and I am attaching this letter to each form with fees.

Thank you so very much for your assistance and promptness to rectify this matter. I will give you a call next week or you can call me if needed.

Sincerely,

Emogene Ezell
