ARTICLE VI

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious and educational purposes, within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, including for such purposes the making of distributions to organizations qualified under said Section 501(c)(3). Within these purposes, the corporation's primary mission shall be to provide contributions to charitable and philanthropic organizations as set for in the corporation's by-laws or as otherwise determined by the corporation. Any earnings are to be devoted to related charitable and philanthropic purposes. The corporation may exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon corporations not for profit that are not inconsistent with its charitable and philanthropic purposes including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the powers to acquire by devise, gift, purchase, lease or otherwise any property of any sort or nature without limitation as to amount or value, and to hold, invest, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expend, disburse, lease, mortgage, convey, option, donate or otherwise dispose of such property and the income, principal and proceeds of such property, for the purposes set forth herein, and the corporation may do such other things as are incidental to the purposes of the corporation or necessary or desirable in order to accomplish them.

ARTICLE VII

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors or officers, but the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article IV hereof.

ARTICLE VIII

Upon the dissolution or liquidation of this corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, all of its funds and other assets remaining after payment of all costs and expenses of dissolution or liquidation shall be distributed and paid over entirely and exclusively to an organization or organizations which has or have qualified for exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. None of the funds or assets and none of the income of this corporation shall be paid over, distributed to or inure to any member, officer or director of this corporation.
