Dear Sir:

We received a notification of dissolution of the Community Partnership for the Protection of Children, Jacksonville, Florida Inc., on October 9, 2003.

According to your information, our agency had been notified to submit a corporation annual report/uniform business report. To date, we had not received this notice. Our offices are located in an adjacent building on the grounds of a local high school. Our mail is delivered to the school. There have been many instances when we didn't receive our mail. Due to the fact that we were not receiving all of our mail, we resorted to a post office box. Please note that all correspondence is mailed to P. O. Box 9232 Jacksonville, Florida 32208.

We are requesting a waiver of late fees and reinstatement (application and application fee enclosed). We were incorporated September 4, 2002; our corporation fiscal year did not conclude until September 30, 2003. Will this have an effect on the date our annual report needed to be submitted?

We apologize for the uncontrollable delay.

Thank you,

Sandra Y. Durham
Executive Director
