The purpose of the "Parade of States 'African American Style' Corporation is to educate 11th and 12th grade African American females on the history of African Americans, and to provide the development of leadership and communication skills. Each student will be assigned a state and must fulfill three (3) major requirements. They are study and research, an essay and an oral presentation. Once a year the corporation will seek to grant an educational scholarship to top performing participants.

The business is family owned and the Chair of the Board will duly appoint the officers.
