ARTICLE VI

Management of Corporate Affairs

(a) The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors. The method of election of directors shall be as determined by the Bylaws of the corporation.

(b) The corporation shall hold and manage all property received and accepted by it to be administered hereunder, and shall pay over, transfer, distribute, administer, or otherwise deal with the principal and income thereof, in such manner or manners, and at such time or times, as in the judgment of the directors shall be suited to carrying out the purposes of the corporation. The Board of Directors shall oversee the employment of personnel, managers, administrators, assistants, secretaries, and other persons, agents, servants and employees, provided, always, however, that no part of the property held by the corporation, or the earnings thereon, shall inure or be payable to or for the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

(c) The Board of Directors shall have all the authority vested in it by Chapters 617 and 607 of the Florida Statutes, as amended from time to time.

(d) The corporation shall have all powers granted to it under Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, as amended from time to time, provided that such powers are not in conflict with the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

that caused the vacancy. Directors chosen to fill vacancies shall be chosen to serve the remainder of the term, unless the remaining Directors elect by majority vote to not fill said vacancy.

ARTICLE X

Earnings & Activities of Corporation

(a) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered when deemed advisable by the Board of Directors and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article IV hereof.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Sec. 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

ARTICLE XI

Distribution of Assets

Upon dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation to another organization or organizations which are organized and operated for the same purposes for which this corporation is organized and operated or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, scientific or educational purposes

(((H02000215316 9)))

as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine.

ARTICLE XII

Members

There shall be no members or shareholders of this corporation.

ARTICLE XIII

Bylaws

Bylaws of this Corporation may be made, altered, rescinded, added to, or new Bylaws may be adopted, by a vote of a majority of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XIV

Amendment of Articles

Amendments to these Articles of Incorporation may be adopted by a vote of a majority of the Board of Directors.
