No substantial part of the activities of Global Mission Strategies, Inc. shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, (except as otherwise provided by Section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code), and Global Mission Strategies, Inc. shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, Global Mission Strategies, Inc. shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by:

- (a) A Corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law), or
- (b) A corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law).

In the event of the dissolution of this Corporation, or in the event it shall cease to carry out the objectives and purposes herein set forth, all of the business, property and assets of the Corporation shall go and be distributed to such Non-Profit Corporation(s) qualifying as an Organization exempt under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any superseding statute thereof, and as an Organization qualifying as a public charity under the provisions of Section 509(a)(1) or 509(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any superseding statute, as the Directors of the Corporation may select and designate. In no event shall any of said assets or property, in the event of dissolution thereof, go or be distributed to members, directors or officers of the corporation either for the reimbursement of any sum subscribed, donated or contributed by such members, or for any other such purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is located, exclusively for such purposes, or to the Organization(s) as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE XIII: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The initial Board of Directors is established by these Articles of Incorporation as specified in Article IV. The business and property of the Corporation shall be managed by a Board of not less than three (3) or more than nineteen (1) Directors. The Directors duly constituted and elected shall constitute the Board of Directors and they shall hold their offices for a period of two (2) years, or until other or further election, resignation, incapacity, or death. In the event of resignation or incapacity, the inability of any Director to act, or in the event of death of any Director, the remaining Directors shall elect another Director, or Directors, to fill the vacancy or vacancies, thus created. A new Director shall be elected by a majority vote of the total Director(s), excluding the Director(s) whose position is being filled by vote. Additionally:

- (a) The Directors in their collective capacity shall be known as the Board of Directors and under that name shall constitute the governing body, and shall conduct and transact all business of the Corporation;
- (b) The Directors shall have power and authority to hold an annual meeting of the board of Directors and may likewise hold special meetings as may be determined by the board of Directors. The annual meeting, if and when held, shall be held at the offices of the Corporation in Jacksonville, Florida on the 2nd Monday of January in each year at the hour of 7:00 p.m. or such day, or as soon thereafter in each year as possible for the Directors to call such meeting or at such other location within or without the State of Florida as the Board of Directors may decide by majority vote. Any special meetings may be held at such time as the Directors may determine, and all meetings shall be held at the offices of the Corporation in Jacksonville, Florida or as otherwise specified by the Board of Directors;
- (c) There shall be but two classes of membership in this Corporation. The first class of membership will be the members of the Board of Directors. The members of the Board of Directors will be the voting members. Only the Board of Directors will be authorized to vote. The Board of Directors will constitute the voting members of the Corporation and will have complete and total control of the Corporation as specified in the ARTICLES of Incorporation. The second class of membership will be the participating members of the corporation. Participating members of the Corporation shall have no authority or voting rights. Participating members shall have not authority to (a) approve or recommend to members actions or proposals required by law to be approved by the members; (b) designate candidates for the office of Director, for the purposes of proxy solicitation or otherwise; (c) fill vacancies on the Board of Directors or any committee thereof; or (d) amend the Bylaws. Membership in this Corporation may be obtained by natural persons of all races, creeds, and colors, who shall publicly profess their belief in Jesus Christ as their personal Savior and who shall further profess their belief in the purposes of this organization as set forth herein above, and who shall thereafter be accepted into membership in such manner as provided by the Board of Directors of this Corporation. The subscribers to these Articles of Incorporation and the initial Directors of this Corporation shall be and constitute the initial members of this corporation. Any Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation may be made, altered or rescinded only by the Board of Directors of this Corporation, having received the vote of a majority of the board of Directors in office;

- (d) The Board of Directors shall have the authority and power to establish, institute, operate and maintain any and all departments, associations, institutions, schools, mission stations, programs, and/or any and all such other means as may be deemed appropriate and advisable by the Board of Directors for the propagation of the Gospel and this Christian ministry anywhere within the United States of America and/or in any other country;
- (e) The Board of Directors of Global Mission Strategies, Inc. shall have the power and authority to negotiate, or to designate agents to negotiate, all of the business transactions, to receive funds or property and make disbursements, for any such additional departments, associations, institutions, schools, mission stations, programs, and/or any and all such other means established or instituted by this Corporation;
- (f) A majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction by the Board of Directors of any and all business, in accordance to the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE XIV: BY LAWS

The Board of Directors shall adopt By-Laws of the Corporation which are not inconsistent with these Articles.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned subscribing Incorporator has hereunto set his hand and seal this 19 day of November, 2002, for the purpose of forming this not for profit corporation under the laws of the State of Florida.
