ARTICLE IX EXECUTIVE AND OTHER COMMITTEES

Section One – Creation of Committees

The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the whole Board, designate an Executive Committee and one or more other committees.

Section Two – Executive Committee

The Executive Committee shall be comprised of the officers and the immediate past President of the Chamber.

The Executive Committee (if there is one) shall consult with and advise the Officers of the Board in the management of its affairs and shall have and may exercise, to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board of Directors creating such Executive Committee, such powers of the Board of Directors as can be lawfully delegated by the Board.

Section Three – Other Committees

Such other committees shall have such functions and may exercise such power of the Board of Directors as can be lawfully delegated and to the extent provided in the resolution or resolutions creating such committee or committees. Any Chamber Member may sit on a committee, except the Executive Committee. Committees shall be limited to 7 Members who shall volunteer to sit on the committee. In the event more than 5 Members wish to be on a committee, the Members shall be chosen by the President.

Section Four – Meetings

Regular meetings of the Executive Committee and other committees may be held without notice at such time and at such place as shall from time to time be determined by the Executive Committee or such other committees, and special meetings of the Executive Committee or such other committees may be called by any Member thereof upon two (2) days' notice to the other Members of such committee, or on such shorter notice as may be agreed to in writing by each of the other Members of such committee, given either personally or in the manner provided in these by-laws pertaining to notice for Board meetings.

Section Five – Vacancies

Vacancies on the Executive Committee or on other committees shall be filled by the Board of Directors then in office at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section Six – Quorum

At all meetings of the Executive Committee or other committees, a majority of the committee's Members then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section Seven – Manner of Acting

The acts of a majority of the Members of the Executive Committee or other committees present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of such committee.

Section Eight – Minutes

The Executive Committee (if there is one) and the other committees shall keep regular minutes of their proceedings and report the same to the Board of Directors when required.

Section Nine – Terms

Excluding the Executive Committee, committee Members shall be appointed for one year terms. If a committee Member resigns or their membership ceases, the replacement Member will be chosen by the President, and will serve out the remaining term of the departing Member. The Board of Directors, by a majority vote, has the right to remove a committee Member.

ARTICLE X ELECTIONS

Section One - Voting Eligibility

Only qualified Members have the right to vote in any Chamber elections. A qualified Member shall be a Member in good standing who has paid his/her membership dues. Further a renewing Member who pays his/her dues on the date of the election shall be eligible to vote. A new Member will be required to have paid his/her dues at least thirty (30) days prior to the general election in order to vote in that election.

Section Two - Election Site

The election site of Directors/Officers shall be held at a special meeting in November at a properly noticed date, time and place.

Section Three - Beginning of Term

After the election, the Officers/Directors shall take office on January 1 of the following year at 12:00 a.m.

Section Four - Office holder requirement.

To be nominated or to hold office or both, the individual must be a "qualified Member" of the Chamber.

Section Five - Nominations

A Nominating committee shall nominate a slate of Directors for the upcoming election. The slate shall be published to the general membership at least 30 days prior to the annual election. Individual members may nominate additional candidates. The submission of candidates other than those on the Nominating committee's slate must be received, in writing, by the Chamber's office no later than 15 days prior to the scheduled election.

Section Six - Vote

Except for the President, election of the Officers/Directors of the Chamber shall be by a plurality, a majority of votes not being necessary, as voted by the members present at the election meeting by secret written ballot. The President Elect shall automatically serve as President following the election of the other Officers/Directors of the Chamber.

ARTICLE XI AMENDMENTS

The By-Laws may be amended by the majority of the Members of the Board present at any regular or special Board meeting.

ARTICLE XII INDEMNIFICATION

Each Director/Officer now or hereafter serving the Chamber, and each person who, at the request of or on behalf of the Chamber, and the representative heirs, executors and administrators for each of them shall be indemnified by the Chamber against all costs, expenses, judgements and liabilities, including attorneys' fees reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him/her in connection with or resulting from any action, suit, or proceeding, civil or criminal, in which he/she is or may be a party by reason of his/her being or having been such Director/Officer or by reason of any action alleged to have been taken or omitted by him/her as a Director/Officer, whether or not he/she is a Director/Officer at the time of incurring such costs, expenses, judgements and liabilities, except in relation to matters to which he/she shall be finally adjudged, without right of further appeal in such action, suit or proceedings, to have been liable for willful misconduct in the performance of his/her duty as such Director/Officer. Such indemnification shall be made with respect to any adjudication whether or not on the merits and shall extend to settlements and compromises. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be exclusive of other rights to which such Director/Officer may be entitled as a matter of law.

ARTICLE XIII MISCELLANEOUS

Section One - Inspection of Books

The books, accounts and records of the Chamber shall be open to inspection by any Member of the Chamber qualified to vote upon reasonable written notice to the custodian of the records sought to be inspected and at the place where such records are maintained provided that the parties concerned may mutually agree to the time and place of inspection.

Section Two - Necessary Signatures

The signatures of two (2) of the following five (5) elected officers shall be necessary for the proper issuance of checks disbursing funds of the Chamber: President, President-elect, Treasurer, Recording Secretary and/or Corresponding Secretary.

Section Three - Annual Report

The President, Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer shall submit their Annual Report to the Chamber and its' Members at the Annual Nominating Meeting held during the month of November.

Section Four- Bond

The Chamber shall bond the Officers/Directors if the Board so determine, in such sum and with sureties as may be required, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of their offices.

Section Five - Past Years Financial Statement

Within thirty (30) days of the newly elected or re-elected President beginning his or her term, the Past President shall submit a Financial Statement to the new President reflecting the financial status of the Chamber.

Section Six - Waiver of By-Laws

These By-Laws may not be waived for any reason. The only way to change any section of these By-Laws is by amendment as set forth in Article VII.
